Drakes Bay Subdivision Is Rejected

Marin County supervisors by 3-2 vote decided yesterday to reject the 168-acre Drakes Bay Pines subdivision on Point Reyes Peninsula, even at risk of a court fight.

Attorney Benjamin P. Bonelli of Belvedere held firm to his view that the county planning commission had exceeded its legal rights in making its approval of tentative map conditional on provision of access roads outside the subdivision. But he said at one point that he'd weigh the costs of going to court against the costs of some sort of compromise.

He was before the board in an appeal action. This created confusion over technicalities, kept Chairman Walter R. Castro on a hot spot as to rulings, and led to an action which still didn't settle things.

Technically the board still has not acted on the appeal, for what Supervisor Peter Behr finally put through was a resolution disapproving the subdivision tentative map "on a basis of inadequate roads as decided by the director of public works."

Supervisor William Gnoss and Castro voted for this, with Supervisors George Ludy and William D. Fusselman in opposition.

County Counsel E. Warren McGuire said that within seven days the board must adopt findings on the appeal, with reasons for its action. With Bonelli's concurrence, the board set this for 3 p.m. next Tuesday.

With a stenographer taking full transcript, it was found necessary to consider the record to a degree unusual at board hearings. After one emotional outburst by Peter D. Whitney of Inverness, reflecting on the subdividers' good faith and declaring that "this is a subdivision that will never be built and everyone knows it," Behr obtained an order that the whole of Whit-

Rescue squads work to remove victims from a section of the fuselage of a Continental airliner that fell about 20 miles southwest of Centerville, Iowa, near Unionville, Mo., last night. Parts of the wreckage were found over a 25-mile area. Fortyfive persons lost their lives; however, one victim died after miraculously surviving the crash. Government officials were on the scene today investigating the tragedy. This was Continental's first fatal accident in 28 years of service. (AP Wirephoto)

Jetliner Breaks Apart In Sky—45 Aboard Die

Wreckage Scattered Over 25-Mile Area

CENTERVILLE, Iowa (UPI) — A Continental Airlines jet airliner broke apart in the air and crashed last night during a violent wind and electric storm.

All 45 persons aboard were killed.

Officials of the Federal Aviation Authority (FAA), the Civil Aeronautics Board (CAB), the FBI and of the airline flew today to the valley near the Iowa-Missouri border where the Boeing 707 airliner came down.

The wreckage of the Chicago-to-Los Angeles jet was scattered over a 25-mile area in two states, indicating a powerful force had torn it apart.

Miraculously, one of the 37 passengers was found still alive in the wreckage today, eight hours after the crash. But he died an hour later in a hospital.

It was the first fatal crackup in Continental's 28-year history, marring commercial aviation's most perfect safety record. It was the third crash of a 707 since they went into service in 1958.

The Golden Jet" was cruising at 39,000 feet and was 25 minutes from a stop at Kansas City when it crashed.

The first clue to the plane's fate was two pieces of metal found on a highway by a passing motorist.

Seven hundred searchers followed a 10-mile trail of debris stretching across the Missouri border to the biggest piece of wreckage —the rear section of the fuselage.

Inside were the bodies of 41 of the victims. The three other bodies were found from one to one and-a-half miles away.

The ground party heard a moan inside the fuselage and found Takehiko Nakano, a passenger, still alive.

Nakano, 27, a service engineer for Electronic Microscopes, had been in the United States about a year and a half.

Nakano was rushed from the tiny valley where the fuselage crashed to a hospital at Unionville, Mo., where he died.

Najeeb Halaby, director of the FAA flew from San Francisco to the crash scene to investigate the cause of the nation's latest air disaster.

The FBI sent its special "disaster squad" from Washington to examine the crash wreckage. Thomas J. Gearty, FBI agent in charge of Omaha, Neb., said "disaster squads" are not usually assigned to airline crashes unless the airline requests it.

FBI agent W. M. Felt of Kansas City said "no comment" when asked whether there were any indications that any unnatural factors could be involved in the crash.

San Jose School Trustees Hire New Superintendent

Ralph Giovanniello yesterday was hired as new superintendent of the San Jose Elementary School District at a salary of $13,500 per year.

He replaces Phillip W. Schneider, who resigned to go to Monrovia, Liberia, for two years on a U.S. State Department project.

Giovanniello has been assistant superintendent in charge of instruction of Novato Unified School District for six years.

He will assume his new duties on July 1. Schneider will leave for Africa next Tuesday.

Robert Allen, chairman of the San Jose board, said Giovanniello was chosen as "the best man that applied."

Giovanniello said that he would resign from his position with the Novato Schools at the next meeting of the Novato board.

He said he hated to leave "a team of people with whom one has worked with over a long period of time," but added he was looking "forward to my relationship with another school district that has earned an outstanding reputation in Marin County for its concern about the quality of education it offers its students."

Giovanniello was born in Asbury Park, N.J., in 1920. He served as a fighter pilot with

WELL, THAT'S HOW DEMOCRACY WORKS

Fifty-two Tamalpais High School seniors did not get a chance to vote in a yell leader run-off election yesterday because they were on a field trip for their "Problems in American Democracy" class.

The result: The runoff between the Go-T's, headed by Kenneth Robin and the three Peps headed by Douglas Chambers, will be held again tomorrow. It will be the third election for yell leaders in six days.

Friday's run-off was forced when three teams were running and none got more than one-half the votes cast. The Royal T's were eliminated and a new election set for yesterday. The Go-T's edging out the Three Peps by three votes.

Then the candidates and student election committee agreed that since 52 students were technically in school, but on a field trip, and had not a chance to vote, they would call for a new election.

The students were visiting the board of supervisors' meeting, the county courts, and Dist. Atty. Robert P. Garety's office.

Go-T's include Judy Dexter and Kathy Walker, both of Sausalito, and the Three Peps include Carol McLaughlin and Carol Kitchens, both of Mill Valley.

FBI Continues Grilling Sergeant About Violent Death Of His Wife

For the second straight day, Federal Bureau of Investigation agents today were grilling Ruben Ernest Rudolph on the violent death of his wife, Lieselotte, found bludgeoned to death on a Marin hillside on Sunday.

Rudolph, 35-year-old Army staff sergeant of the Presidio of San Francisco, was arrested by FBI, Marin and San Francisco authorities shortly after midnight yesterday as he left the apartment of his downstairs neighbor, an attractive, 35-year-old divorcee and mother of two children.

He was taken from his apartment at 2815 Fillmore Street in San Francisco to identify the body of his 36-year-old wife, then jailed at the Presidio stockade where he has been held since without charge.

His downstairs neighbor, Alice K. Lathrop, an employee of a San Francisco warehouse firm, was not available for comment today.

She told authorities, however, that she had been seeing Rudolph during the two weeks he had lived in the apartment above her and that he had borrowed her car last Friday night.

Investigation showed the trunk of the car had been hosed out before he returned it on Saturday. Rudolph said he had cleaned the trunk of dog hairs from his and Mrs. Lathrop's pets.

Mrs. Rudolph's body was found Sunday on a lonely road at Fort Barry, clad in lacy blue, knee-length pajamas. The woman had died at least 24 hours before of several blows on the head, authorities said.

Novato Wants Freeway Survey

The Novato City Council last night voted to ask the State Division of Highways to make a detailed study by July 1 of the newly proposed Highway 101 easterly freeway route around Novato.

The council action came after residents of Atherton Avenue protested the route and its advocates opposed them.

Paul Putnam of 521 Atherton Avenue presented a letter protesting the route through scenic Atherton Valley. It was signed by 10 residents of the area.

Sausalito Council Says No To Huge Apartment

The Sausalito City Council last night turned down a use permit from Ardilla Land Co. to build a 422-unit apartment house on Rodeo Hill.

The action was unanimous and affirmed planning commission denial of the development, called by Councilman Michael Harris "one of the largest apartment houses in the world." Application was submitted by F. Bruce Bernard.

William B. Wolfson, attorney representing Bernhard and Brad McNutt, protested to the council that all legal requirements had been met.

"I ask you to observe the law," said Wolfson.

Councilmen heard reports of the planning commission, city manager, city engineer, building inspector and chiefs of the police and fire departments.

The council in general disapproved of the sprawling building, to be connected by underground parking facilities over a 14.5-acre area, because it felt the density too great. It also cited traffic difficulties and fire protection problems.

City Engineer John L. Hunter declared the apartment complex was not one but six separate buildings, with five separate garages.

'Go' Or 'No Go' For Astronaut?

CAPE CANAVERAL (UPI) — Launch crews today successfully completed the first phase of the split-countdown for astronaut M. Scott Carpenter's scheduled orbital flight tomorrow and officials said the crucial "go" or "no go" decision would be made this evening.

A spokesman indicated that everything checked out perfect in the space vehicle in the first phase of the countdown, but launch conditions still were causing concern.

Russ Halt U.S. Convoy In Berlin

BERLIN (AP) — The Russians today halted an outbound U.S. Army convoy for almost six hours in their first interference with Berlin traffic since tensions over the divided city eased in March.

U.S. authorities promptly lodged a strong protest and the Soviets allowed the convoy to continue on its way to Grafenwoehr, in West Germany, for a tank firing exercise.

Wife Says Ex-Priest Fathered Child

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Mrs. Walter Ryan of Glen Head, N.Y., charged in superior court yesterday that her husband, an excommunicated Catholic priest, fathered her youngest daughter during a surprise six-hour visit in May, 1956.

Ryan, 57, who left the priesthood to marry the New York woman, has said he is the father of her three older children. But he has stated under oath that he left home in 1955 and has never returned.

Mrs. Ryan, 41, filed an affidavit yesterday claiming that the 5-year-old girl was a result of the brief reunion in 1956. She asked the court to declare Ryan the father.

'Billy The Kid' At White House

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The American ballet theater, aided by a stereo recording, danced Aaron Copland's "Billy The Kid" last night for a glittering state party in the White House.

The 28 dancers, dressed in cowboy outfits, swooped around the small stage in the East Room with great gusto, much to the delight of the honored visitors, President Felix Houphouet-Boigny and his wife of the Ivory Coast.

Oklahoma Runoff Vote

OKLAHOMA CITY (UPI) — A surge of big city votes gave homebuilder W. P. Bill Atkinson a sure-to-be-disputed margin of 800 votes today in a runoff election for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination against farm country candidate Raymond Gary.

The hairsbreadth race for the top political prize was matched by an equally indecisive battle in yesterday's primary runoff between Democratic Rep. Victor Wickersham, 14-year congressional veteran, and state representative J. M. Bullard for a Congressional nomination.

None of the candidates would concede.

'Death For Salan'

PARIS (UPI)—The prosecution demanded the death penalty for former Gen. Raoul Salan today for his part in the activities of the terrorist Secret Army Organization (OAS).

Prosecutor Andre Gavalda rejected the idea put forward by many defense witnesses that history would exonerate Salan.

A verdict and sentence were expected sometime late tonight.

Nikita To Romania

MOSCOW (AP) — The Presidium announced today that Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev will pay a state and party visit to Romania during the last half of June.

Khrushchev paid a similar visit to Bulgaria last week.

The two visits into Eastern Europe seemed to indicate a plan to concentrate more attention on the neighboring Communist states.

State Hospital Aide

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Robert J. Thomas, administrator of Los Angeles County Hospital, was named to the State Hospital Advisory Board by Gov. Edmund G. Brown yesterday.

Brown also reappointed Mrs. Jean G. Filer of Paradise.

Thomas, 43, succeeds G. Otis Whitecotton of Oakland, whose term expired.

3-Year-Old Crushed

NEW YORK (AP)—A 3-year-old girl who took an elevator ride alone was crushed to death between the wall and the moving elevator.

Police said the victim, Laura Jones, somehow managed to get the inner door open and took hold of the fourth-floor outer door as the self-service elevator descended in a Brooklyn apartment house.

Liz Taylor Denounced

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Iris Blitch (D-Ga.) a grandmother-congresswoman, says Elizabeth Taylor's romance with Richard Burton will hurt the U.S. foreign aid program and leave the Communists chuckling.

She denounced the actress and actor yesterday in the House and said she hopes Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy will take the measures necessary to determine whether the two are ineligible for re-entry into this country on grounds of undesirability.

Estes Prober Now Believed Murdered

WASHINGTON (AP)—Official investigative sources said today that evidence in the Billie Sol Estes case points toward persons "pretty darn high up" in Washington under both the Kennedy and Eisenhower administrations.

The informants, who declined to be identified or to elaborate, said in separate interviews that information has been uncovered indicating bigger names may be involved than any reported so far in the investigation of the indicted financier's alleged influence deals with government officials.

A grimmer probe into a mysterious death a year ago struck sparks in Franklin, Tex., yesterday.

After a partial autopsy, a medical examiner indicated he believes Henry Marshall, an Agriculture Department agent who investigated Estes' farm operations, was murdered.

The Harris County medical examiner, Dr. Joseph Jachimczyk, said he felt "strongly at this time that this is not a suicide."

The complete autopsy report, he said, will be available later this week after laboratory tests.

Marshall, 52, was found dead June 3, 1961, shot five times with a bolt-action .22 rifle. He was buried without an autopsy, his death officially sealed as a suicide.

When the Estes case flashed into national prominence authorities turned again to Marshall's death.

Marshall, as chief of production adjustment for the Texas Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Office, had been investigating Estes' collecting of cotton allotments—an operation the Agriculture Department now says was illegal.

Marshall's body was taken from its grave for an autopsy by what was described as a "whole team of experts."

After the autopsy, Dist. Atty. Bryan Russ said it indicated Marshall was shot in the back.

"A tentative change of the verdict from suicide to murder would be suggested," Russ said.

Estes himself, the wheeler and dealer who built a business empire on cotton, storage of government grain and fertilizer, is expected to face a host of his creditors in El Paso today. Authorities doubt he will have much to say, figuring he will invoke the Fifth Amendment's provisions against possible self-incrimination.

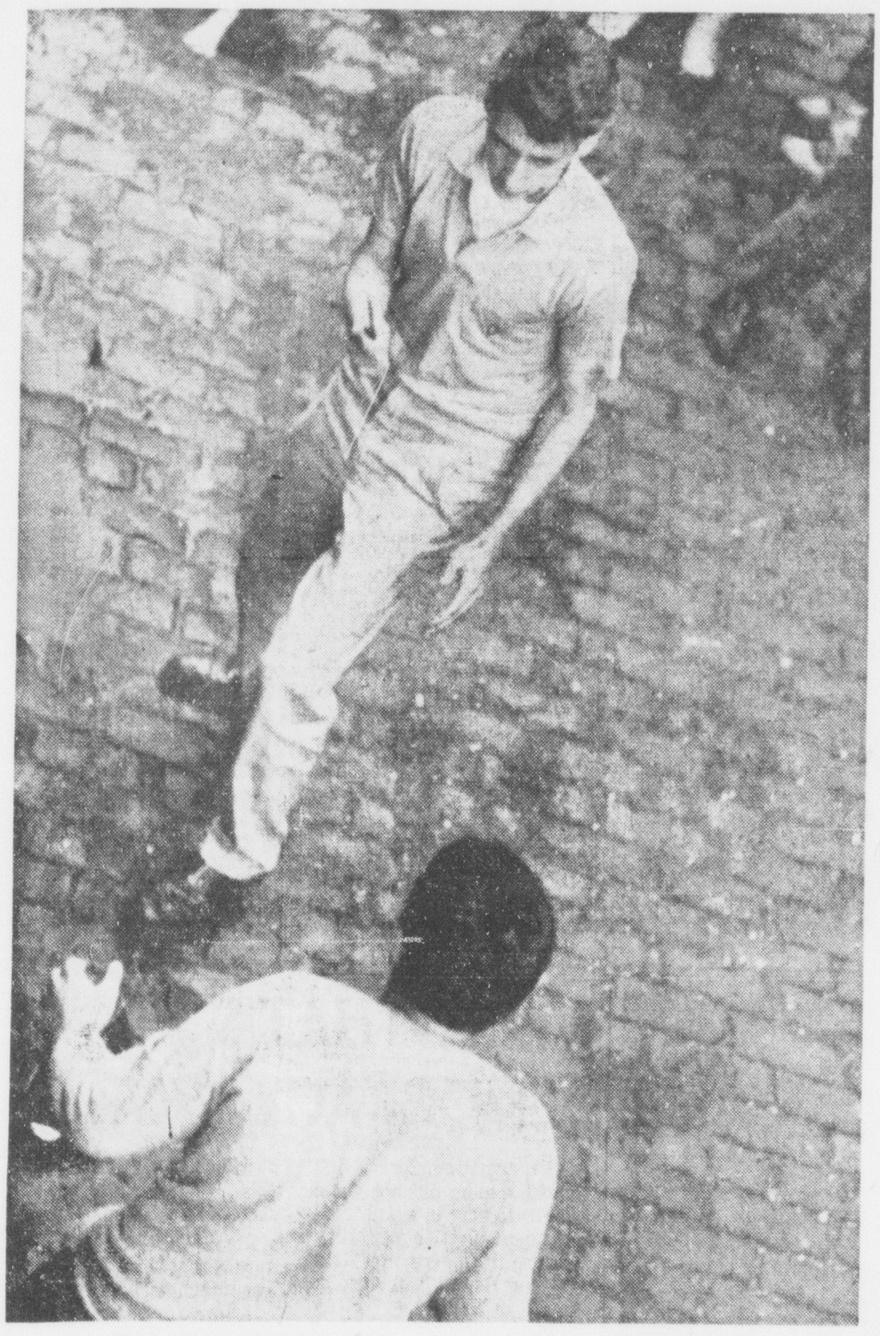

Two congressional subcommittees in Washington and four grand juries in Texas are exploring the cloud of scandals and rumors surrounding the debris of Estes' operations.

He is awaiting trial on federal fraud charges and a Texas indictment accusing him of theft. He has declared himself bankrupt.

The Agriculture Department announced yesterday it will pull some 42 million bushels of government grain out of storage in elevators and warehouses owned by or connected with Estes.

The government has paid about 4 million dollars a year to store the grain.

The order was a blow to creditors who had hoped the government payments would pay off their claims against Estes.

Nixon Will Answer 'Smear'

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The three principal gubernatorial candidates carried their varying opinions about California's economy to different sections of the state today as they stepped up campaigns for the June 5 primary.

Gov. Edmund G. Brown was visiting Orange County.

Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, starting what his aides term a whirlwind stretch drive, visited his Alameda headquarters at noon, and attended a reception at the Shattuck Hotel in Berkeley.

Assemblyman Joseph C. Shell, vying with Nixon for the Republican nomination, was to address a rally at the Sports Arena in Los Angeles.

Governor Brown, speaking yesterday at a Palmdale luncheon, labeled Nixon and Shell as reckless men who picture California as a boneyard for business.

Meanwhile, Shell spoke of a slowdown in California's industrial growth. He charged that tax increases sought by Brown had caused a 58 per cent increase in unemployment since 1959.

At a rally in Brentwood, Nixon announced he would appear on a four-hour statewide telethon next Tuesday. He'll use the program, he said, to answer charges made by Brown in "a massive personal smear attack." He said he also would tell how Brown's budget can be cut.

Europeans Leaving Algeria In Droves

At least two military policemen were wounded in a 10-minute gunfight.

The fighting started when OAS men opened up with submachineguns on a gendarmerie convoy moving through the city.

New fighting broke out near a government center at 12:30 p.m. It was preceded by a heavy explosion which was apparently a signal for the OAS gunners to open fire.

Panic-stricken Europeans dived for cover when the shooting broke out. The streets emptied in seconds.

The gunfire aimed at a police post at the government center appeared to come from windows and rooftops nearby. Military police, firing from armored cars and half-tracks, raked building fronts with gun fire.

At dawn OAS attackers lobbed 10 rifle grenades into the Rab quarter of Maison Carree, just west of Algiers and injured two persons.

By noon, OAS attacks in Algiers had killed 15 persons and wounded 5, raising the known terror toll since Jan. 1 to 5,019 dead and 8,943 wounded.

Europeans were leaving Algeria for France by the hundreds as the date for the referendum on Algerian independence neared.

The French steamer Ville de Marseille took 1,150 refugees to Marseille yesterday and turned around for more.

Another 650 left aboard the Ville de Bordeaux and 822 flew out from Maison Blanche Airport. The day before 1,163 flew to France.

Most had left their possessions behind. Entire families went tired and hungry, with nothing but a suitcase between them.

"Nobody defends us," said a European doctor who was director of an Algiers' clinic. "The situation in Algeria is catastrophic. I left behind everything I had."

"The Europeans are panicking," said one of the 20 Moslems on the Ville de Marseille. "All they can think about is leaving."

The European refugees had two fears — that the terrorist OAS would kill them for deserting the "French Algeria" cause, or that the Moslems would kill them in revenge when Algeria becomes fully independent.

CLAY'S SON HURT IN VIET FIGHTING

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (UPI)—Lt. Col. Frank B. Clay, son of Gen. Lucius D. Clay, President John F. Kennedy's special Berlin adviser, was wounded today in action against Communist guerrillas.

A U.S. military spokesman said three other U.S. Army officers also were wounded in the same action on the Plain of Reeds in Kieng Phong Province 75 miles southwest of Saigon.

The spokesman said that an Army master sergeant was wounded in a separate incident when he stepped on a Communist-planted land mine while leading a group of South Vietnamese Rangers on a "training exercise" about 20 miles northwest of Saigon.

The sergeant's name was not given.

None of the wounded men was reported injured seriously.

CORONADO (UPI) — Paul B. Kelly, vice president of the board of Crocker-Anglo National Bank of San Francisco, today was elected president of the California Bankers Assn. at its annual meeting here.

Kelly also was named to fill a three-year term as a member of the executive council of the American Bankers Assn.

Action Is Taken Toward Link For Terra Linda, Ross Valley

Action toward a road linking Terra Linda with the Ross Valley was taken on two fronts last night.

The Sleepy Hollow Home Owners Assn. discussed alternates to a proposed Manuel Freitas Parkway - Butterfield Road link, and found one of them feasible.

The San Anselmo City Council appointed City Administrator Douglass Flautt to meet with officials of San Rafael and the county to discuss the proposed road.

The squeeze for the long-discussed road came recently with announcement by the Draper Companies of plans for development of the Northgate Shopping Center beside Freitas Parkway in San Rafael. Emporium-Capwell Co., which plans to establish a major department store there, reportedly wants assurance of access other than from Highway 101.

John W. Gaylord, Sleepy Hollow Home Owners Assn. president, said the roads committee would meet again next week "as we don't know our own minds yet."

A route well to the north, from Lucas Valley Road through Dominican Convent lands to eventually reach Sir Francis Drake Boulevard at White's Hill, was discussed last night. Henry Shubart, architect for Dominican, called it feasible, Gaylord reported.

San Anselmo councilmen instructed Flautt not to commit the Hub City to anything, but to meet with county and San Rafael officials to discuss a road link. A route through land being purchased by the City of San Anselmo, to reach Drake Boulevard via San Francisco Boulevard, is among those being considered.

The San Rafael City Council went on record 18 months ago as willing to participate in a road extension to the city limits near the Sleepy Hollow ridge, with no route specified.

to a family whose members included veterans of the American Revolution, War of 1812 and Civil War. He spent his boyhood around shipyards and went to sea as a Matson Navigation Co. crewman on the Alaska run in 1906.

He later was promoted to first mate and made many voyages between Honolulu and the Orient before he came to San Anselmo one summer and decided to stay. He opened his first real estate office in Fairfax, which was at that time experiencing a boom.

He was a member of the Marin County Real Estate Board and the American Right-of-Way Assn.

Carey leaves his wife, Jessie S.; three sons, Robert S. Cary of Ross and Willis J. and David C. Carey of San Anselmo; a sister, Mrs. Reba Newcomb of Phoebus, Va., and five grandchildren.

Private family services will be held tomorrow in the Chapel of the Hills, San Anselmo. The family asks that tributes be memorial gifts to the Marin County Heart Assn. or St. Paul's Episcopal Church Building Fund, San Rafael.

Policeman's Home Robbed: $200, Rings

A burglar tip-toed into the Corte Madera home of a San Francisco policeman yesterday, while the officer's wife was gardening in the back yard, and walked off with $200 in cash and two diamond rings, Corte Madera police were told.

Mrs. Mary Catherine O'Connor of 29 Paloma Drive in Marin Estates reported to police that the theft took place between 1:30 and 4:30 p.m. while she was gardening.

She said she re-entered the house to find her wallet had been taken from the top of a dresser. The wallet contained $200 in $10 and $20 bills, she said. Also missing were a gold wedding band and a silver wedding band, both containing diamonds.

Her husband, John J. O'Connor, returned from San Francisco later and found the wallet, empty, stuck between the mattress and bed springs of their bed.

took off at 10:35 p.m. (EDT). As it cruised over the Middle West, it ran into the edge of a lightning-laced storm in which winds were clocked at 75 miles an hour.

At 11:30, farmers in the area saw an orange glare in the sky. A few thought they heard sounds which resembled giant thunderclaps.

The jet apparently plunged almost straight down, the fuselage smacking into the rough rolling farmland near Unionville.

Councilmen Favor School Tax Hike For Sausalito

Individual support of the 50-cent tax limit increase proposed by the Sausalito School District was given by the five Sausalito city councilmen last night, but the council considered it not politic to endorse the measure as a body.

The proposal comes before the voters in the June 5 primary election.

Eugene M. Huggins, co-chairman of the school tax committee, asked the council to endorse a resolution backing the increase.

Each councilman expressed himself in favor of the tax hike, but the council voted no resolution of endorsement.

Business District Gets No Action

San Rafael planning commissioners, faced last night with a 27-item agenda, again put off talking about a proposed central business district for San Rafael in which high-rise buildings could be built.

Commissioners, who closed the first public hearing for the district two weeks ago without having said anything about it, continued last night's hearing until their next meeting June 3.

No citizen has appeared to discuss the proposed district.

ney's remarks be stricken from the record.

Efforts by Thomas Storer of Balboa Avenue, Point Reyes, to discuss the condition and dimensions of this road brought ruling from McGuire that a county road was not pertinent to the hearing.

Ludy promised that regardless of the subdivision fate, Balboa Avenue will be due for early improvement by the county.

An effort was made by Ludy to have the whole subdivision question referred back to the planning commission, but McGuire said the fact of appeal prevented this.

Major controversy involved the question of obligation by the subdividers to improve 4,000 feet of road west from Balboa Avenue to the subdivision. Public Works Director Marvin W. Brigham testified to belief that the potential travel will rise to 4,000 cars daily if houses are built on all the lots recorded, about 500.

"Two rights of way were reserved forever in 1906," said Bonelli. "No one can come 56 years later and deny access."

Burglars Break Into Garage, Store

Burglars who broke into Garatti Motors in Novato last night used one of the firm's own jacks to lift a 300-pound safe into a car or truck, Novato police reported.

The office of the garage at 7090 Redwood Highway was ransacked, and the safe hauled away. The safe contained only $50 in cash and some papers, police said.

Burglars—perhaps the same ones—also broke into Oscar's Paint Store at 1222 Grant Avenue. There, $24 was taken from a cash register.

In both cases, entry was by breaking a back door, police said.

College Tax Hike Plan Due Airing

The proposed tax hike for Marin Junior College District, to be voted on June 5, will be discussed from 9 to 10 a.m. tomorrow on the radio KTIM (Marin Sounding Board."

Panelists include Dr. Stephen E. Epler, president of the college; Mrs. Elizabeth M. Deedy, clerk of the board of trustees; Robert Rich, member of the college's citizens advisory committee, and Fred Winn, student at the college.

Kitty Oppenheimer will moderate.

Stops Constipation Due to "Aging Colon"

New laxative discovery re-creates 3 essentials of normal regularity

As you grow older, the internal muscles of your colon wall also age, lose the strength that propels waste from the body. Stagnant bowel contents become so dry and shrunken that they fail to stimulate the urge to purge.

Relief, doctors say, lies in a new laxative principle. Old-style bulks and moisteners may create gas, take 3 or 4 days for relief. Old-style salts and drugs frequently cramp and gripe. Of all leading laxatives, only new COLONAID gives you its special 3-way relief that works only on the lower colon (area of constipation).

(1) COLONAID prevents the formation of dry, hardened waste for easy passage without pain or strain. (2) COLONAID's unique rebulking action helps retone flabby colon muscles. (3) And COLONAID acts gently on the nerve reflexes that stimulate the vital "mass movement" of your lower colon.

COLONAID relieves even chronic constipation overnight; is so gentle it was hospital proved safe even for expectant mothers. And COLONAID won't interfere with absorption of vitamins or other food nutrients. Get COLONAID today! INTRODUCTORY SIZE 43¢

Wife Goes To Call Doctor —Eugene Hord Succumbs

There is no telephone at the Hord home at 658 Adrienne Street, Novato, so when Eugene Francis Hord became ill last midnight, his wife, Greta, walked three blocks to the Novato Police station to call a doctor.

She made the call at 1:52 a.m. Eight minutes later, she was back at the police station. When she arrived home, she said, her husband had stopped breathing.

Police Walter Weidauer tried artificial respiration and called the Novato Fire Department for a resuscitator crew. But when the doctor arrived at 2:07 a.m., he pronounced Hord dead. An autopsy was scheduled today.

Hord, 54, was an auto salesman with Harvey Motors in San Francisco. He had resided for three years in Novato, 12 years in Marin County, and 28 years in California.

He was born Sept. 1, 1908, in Long Island, N.Y. He was a captain in the Army during World War II.

Besides his wife, he is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Greta Clark of Vallejo; his mother, Mrs. Katherine M. Hord, and a brother, John Hord, both of White Plains, N.Y.

Funeral arrangements are pending at the Redwood Chapel Funeral Home, Novato.

Freitas Unit Give Schools $50,000

A record $50,000 grant to the Dominican Convent's upper and lower school scholarship fund was announced today by the Freitas Foundation, a Marin County non-profit corporation with San Rafael headquarters.

Carlos R. Freitas, secretary of the foundation, said the grant was made as a tribute to the educational excellence of the Dominican schools since their start 112 years ago.

Twenty members of the Freitas family have studied with the Dominican Sisters, said Freitas, since Manuel T. and Maria B. Freitas made their homes in then sparsely populated Marin County in the second half of the last century.

"We feel a very close and warm relationship," he said, "and we know through first hand experience the quality of education which is their tradition."

Mother Mary Justin, O.P., prioress general of the San Rafael, Dominicans, in expressing gratitude for the grant said it was the largest ever made to benefit the scholarship programs.

ings of these people," Putnam told the council.

John Sorum of 699 Orange Avenue, whose home would have been removed by alternates closer to town, urged the council to have the study made "to compare with other routes that take 40 homes."

William Berry, president of the chamber of commerce, asked that the council "bring the matter to a head and request the study."

The freeway committee of the chamber of commerce, in a letter signed by Peter Ferrarese and Daniel Aughney, co-chairmen, urged the council to call for a study of the "K" or newest route proposal.

The motion asking for the state study carried unanimously. However, an amendment asking that it be made by July 1 passed 3-to-2, with Mayor M. E. Silva and Councilman Everett Pozzi dissenting.

Veteran Lost Legs In Korean Conflict

Smith lost his legs during the Korean conflict.

MARIN BUSINESS And INDUSTRY

Boom In Apartment Building Not Confined To Marin Alone

Why apartments? Increasing number of multiple units in Marin is viewed by some with only tepid enthusiasm. "It's changing the face of the county," they say mournfully.

But the apartment boom is not confined to Marin alone. It's averaging about 50 per cent of present day residential construction per living unit. Forecasters claim this will go on for the rest of the decade.

Reasons for the trend are also multiple. The National Apartment Owners Assn. lists such economic factors as these: Older people with comfortable incomes are on the increase and like the convenience of carefree housing. Young people with social inclinations and rising incomes like them, too. They avoid the time-consuming chores around a home.

Increased taxes and high cost of homes have created unbalanced budgets in many quarters. High property values, increased costs for labor, streets, curbs, sewers, water mains, etc., tend to place new homes in the category of luxury living. Apartments can be built for much less per unit.

LAST MONTH in Marin, for example, multiple residential building permits constituted 58 per cent of the total. The construction value average $8,110 per unit as against $13,075 per single family dwelling.

Right now, insurance companies, mortgage bankers and labor unions with big pension funds regard apartment buildings as prime investments. Eastern mortgage funds are finding their way into Marin at interest rates attractive to investors.

Much of this smart money is being bet heavily on units that will rent at low and moderate prices, on the theory that even with an eventual "saturation point" there is less chance of a high vacancy factor.

Most costly rentals here seem destined to center in the southern part of the county. Waterfront sites are naturally at a premium and a play is being made, too, for the "hill" crowd in San Francisco accustomed to high rentals.

INCREASED ORDERS have put Fairchild Semiconductor on full swing shift and partial graveyard shift, with corresponding increases in the payroll. This has gone up from 360 to about 500 in the last two months, according to Gary Nelson of the personnel department.

Assembly line has been pretty well filled, but positions are still open for electronic engineers and technicians.

ROBERT ROESER of Novato and his wife are attending a sales conference of the "All-state Insurance Companies in Denver this week. Roeser qualified as a member of the company's "honor ring" organization.

TRADING of the capital stock of California Financial Corp. began Monday on the New York Stock Exchange. Trading on the Pacific Coast Exchange started yesterday.

California Financial Corp. is a holding company which owns Marin Title Guaranty Co. Other holdings are Security Savings and Loan Assn., Pan Pacific Investment Capital Co., Security Underwriters, Inc., Corporate Agency and Cal-Surety Insurance Agency.

No Follow-Through On School Grounds

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—Tucson's newest high school was named Palo Verde because of the beautiful desert tree which bears that name.

Now that construction is nearing completion, the school district has announced the key to landscaping the school grounds will be large date palms.

Ferry Survey Urged With Transit Funds

Rapid transit officials were sharply reminded by Marin County supervisors yesterday that they should use unexpended money from Marin taxpayers to make a ferry survey.

A letter from the Bay Area Rapid Transit District board was read, accepting Marin's resignation from the district.

The letter said nothing about disposition of Marin's 6 per cent share of surplus to be carried into the next fiscal year.

One resolution by the supervisors, rejected by the transit board, had sought to make return of an estimated $34,600 in surplus a condition for resignation. Later Supervisor Peter Behr had asked that it be spent on ferry survey.

Behr returned to the attack yesterday by promptly moving a ferry survey resolution which the board promptly passed unanimously.

His motion provided that a letter be sent to the secretary of the rapid transit board "requesting the board at its next meeting to take up and decide the question of whether it is willing to use the balance of our contribution for preliminary study of the feasibility of a ferry system between Marin County and San Francisco."

Hawaiian Exhibit At World's Fair

SEATTLE, Wash. (UPI) — A "longhouse," 10,000-feet square, houses Hawaii's exhibits and entertainment features at the Seattle World's Fair.

Financed by private donations from Honolulu and Seattle businessmen, the pavillion contains a 600-seat theater for Polynesian entertainment, which includes the famous Hawaiian hula and Island music.

LUXURY WATERFRONT LIVING

This view of the new Townhouse being constructed by William H. McDevitt Co. in the heart of Sausalito was taken from a yacht. Most units consist of 1,610 square feet of living space with rentals ranging from $295 to $485. Completion is scheduled for July 1.

Two Bloodhounds Help Locate Drowned Girl

Two bloodhounds from San Rafael helped locate a 7-year-old Modesto girl who drowned in a ditch near her home during the weekend.

San Rafael contractor Mike McLean, who is also a special deputy sheriff, took his two bloodhounds, Brandy and Little One, to help trace the girl, Julia Ann Chedester.

The dogs trailed her steps to an irrigation canal near the girl's home where skindivers recovered the body Monday.

McLean and his bloodhounds have been called to all parts of the state to help locate missing persons or escaped prisoners. McLean does the work voluntarily.

The steelmaking furnaces in the United States poured 99,281,601 tons of ingots and steel for castings during 1960. This was the sixth highest annual output in history, according to a report of American Iron and Steel Institute.

Measles Still Top Disease

Measles continued prevalent in Marin County last week, with 35 new cases reported to the county health department.

Seventeen of the cases—nearly half of them—were in San Rafael, said Dr. Carolyn B. Albrecht, county health officer. Others were in Marin City, Mill Valley, San Anselmo, Fairfax and rural areas.

Twelve cases of streptococcic infections were reported during the week, three cases of gonorrhea, two of mumps, two of syphilis.

A case of tuberculosis and one of hepatitis were reported in Novato.

Reception Is Planned For Gnoss On Sunday

A reception, party and entertainment will be given for the candidacy of William A. Gnoss, incumbent county supervisor for the Fifth District, from 3 to 6 p.m. Sunday in the Novato Community Building.

Highlights of the entertainment will be songs by Jane Nickols, a comic dance by Paul Terry and Dr. George McDaniel, the Golden Gate Harmony Four, and excerpts from a London musical sung by Patty Carpenter. A fashion show will be presented by Helen Grey, proprietor of Modern Eve.

David Crandall of the Village Inn will cater the refreshments.

Mrs. Robin Cannon is chairman of the affair.

The seven million-dollar Lewiston-Queenston Bridge, being built by a steel company over the Niagara River, will have the world's largest hingeless steel arch.

Outstanding Seniors Get Scholarships

In some ways it was a family affair yesterday as San Rafael Lodge 1108, B.P.O. Elks, awarded two $250 scholarships to outstanding high school seniors.

One scholarship went to Susan Denman of San Rafael, a Marin Catholic High School senior. Sue's sister, Deanna, won the Elks' scholarship two years ago and is now attending University of Portland.

The other went to David Kerr of Anchor Bay, Mendocino County, a senior at San Rafael Military Academy. David is a second generation graduate of the academy, his father, Ralph E. Kerr, having been a member of the class of 1937.

The "family" part of David's award was that Carl Clark, exalted ruler of the Elks Lodge who presented the scholarships, was also a member of the military academy class of '43.

Runners-up for the awards were Michael V. Gregory of San Anselmo and Deborah L. Rossman of Fairfax, both seniors at Sir Francis Drake High School.

Miss Denman is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Denman of 19 Pine Street, San Rafael. Besides excelling in scholarship, she has been active in girls' athletics, speech and dramatics and has held student offices at Marin Catholic High.

Young Kerr is cadet captain at the military academy, and has played football, baseball and basketball and held student offices while maintaining a high scholastic record.

The scholarships are awarded yearly in conjunction with the state and national foundation awards of the Elks Lodge. Committee in charge of the San Rafael awards was headed by John Clahan, with Roger P. Garety, Virgil S. Hollis, Thomas C. Nelson and Harry Butterworth as members.

Cranston To Speak In Marin Tuesday

State Controller Allan Cranston, candidate for Democratic renomination in the June primary, will speak to Marin business and professional men at a breakfast 8:30 a.m. Tuesday in Dominic's Restaurant in San Rafael.

His topic will be "The Business Climate in California." Peter A. Smith, chairman of the Cranston Lawyers' Committee, will introduce the candidate.

Crowd Peaceful As Teller Urges World Government

By PAUL MILLER

A world government brought about by love and consent must be a reality during the lives of students attending the College of Marin, asserts Dr. Edward Teller.

The so-called "Father of the H-Bomb" told students and others who packed Olney Hall on the Kentfield campus last night that if an effective global government of free nations is ignored, Russian leaders will effect their plans for one based on violence and dictation.

Speaking on the theme "The Legacy of Hiroshima," the title of a book he wrote with Mill Valley author Allen Brown, the atomic scientist maintained that democratic, industrialized nations must unite in moral and and physical power to guarantee freedom.

A step towards unification advocated by the University of California faculty member would be the United States joining the European Common Market, and gradually lifting U.S. tariffs and immigration limitations until within a decade they vanish.

Teller deplored what he termed dishonest negotiations on disarmament. He claimed a greater buildup of nuclear weapons by the United States than by the USSR will deter war. He said the Russian leaders will not attack the free world if the odds are not in their favor.

Teller said he personally believes Russia has an edge in the development of nuclear explosives.

He said the United States should counter-attack only.

"And if we cannot . . . the days of freedom for us and the rest of the world are numbered," he declared.

The Hungarian-born Berkeley resident described his recent work as associate director of U.S.'s radiation laboratory at Livermore in "Operation Plowshare," a program for the development of peaceful uses of nuclear explosives.

"We can make big holes, if anybody wants big holes," he said, adding that scientifically this was called geographical engineering, for seeking minerals and water.

He said nuclear radiation will form mutations necessary to breed algae to feed and to make fish swim into nets. "The ocean is a great storehouse of organic material, and yet today we are still going after its populations with the same methods used in the stone age."

During a question period, an unidentified youth asked with much feeling if while "calling yourself a rational scientist you . . . really believe these things?" And, "Are you going to do something with this monster you built?"

Teller said his was a belief in non-appeasement. He referred to what Hitler did to those who appeased him in 1938. "If we are firm now there will not be a war . . . I may be wrong, but this is what I believe," said the scientist.

Generally, however, Teller's address at the college's conclusion of its spring concert and lecture series was respectfully if not warmly received by the audience. A college official said the scientist had expressed concern that his appearance as a controversial figure might cause trouble.

In 1908 Mt. Rainier National Park was the first national park to admit automobiles. Before that, visitors had to arrive by railroad, stage coach, horseback or afoot.

Bodega Bay Nuclear Plant Protest Disputed

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The University of California "neither supports nor opposes" the Pacific Gas and Electric Co.'s bitterly fought plan to build a 61-million-dollar nuclear power plant at Bodega Bay, according to a spokesman for the university.

Dr. A. Starker Leopold, assistant to the U.C. chancellor and a biologist, disputed a contention of Bodega Bay fishermen and some conservationists that a nuclear plant would damage the bay's abundant marine life.

Leopold testified yesterday in the second day of a state public utilities hearing on the company's application to construct the 325,000 kilowattt plant. A PUC decision is not expected for at least a month.

He said studies made in Great Britain of 10 shoreline nuclear power plants demonstrated that their effects on plant and animal life were "so slight as to be scarcely measurable."

2 San Rafael School Aides Quit—No Reason Give

The two men who head the buildings, grounds and transportation operations of San Rafael city schools submitted their resignations last night.

The San Rafael Board of Education accepted, with expressions of regret, resignations of William N. Barlow, director of buildings, grounds and transportation, and Frank R. Assin, superintendent of grounds. Both are effective July 28.

Board member John M. Bagshaw asked Supt. Bert C. Corona whether he had "any indication of why these resignations were offered."

The superintendent said he had talked with both men but got no definite reason for their quitting.

"I think Mr. Barlow has been looking for another job for some time," said Corona. He added, "Mr. Assin said he would like to be relieved of some of the tensions and pressures of the assignment."

The two resignations topped a list of personnel changes which included transfer of the elementary schools music consultant to classroom teaching. The consultant, Mrs. Dorothy Wall, was assigned to sixth grade at MacPhail School for next term.

Superintendent Corona later told a reporter the change was at Mrs. Wall's request. A replacement as music consultant is being sought, he said.

The board of education got a turndown from the county boundary commission on a proposal to annex San Pedro School to the City of San Rafael without also annexing the portion of San Pedro Road which passes it. County Clerk George H. Gnoss wrote this was against county policy. The proposal in this form originated with the city council. The board approved resubmission of the annexation request with the road included.

A first step was taken toward integrated planning of San Rafael High School expansion, with architect Carl F. Gromme hired to prepare drawings showing all existing facilities and their relation to each other. He estimated the job would cost $700.

Gromme reported moving of the bus shelter and shops at San Rafael High School has been at a standstill for 10 days because of the labor dispute in the construction industry.

Construction of a Terra Linda High School addition by contractor A. Von Rotz has been slowed down by the dispute, said Gromme. Von Rotz laid off carpenters last Friday because laborers were off the job, but steel workers and painters are still at work, the architect said.

On the other hand, a second Terra Linda High addition being built by W. J. Kubon has been going ahead with laborers at work, he reported.

C. Paul Bettini presided over the meeting in the absence of president Roderick P. Martinelli.

The Board Of Education Also:

1. Assured the Glenwood Home Owners Assn. that the matter of an access road to the Glenwood School, now being planned by architects Cantin and Cantin, was being included in the plans.

2. Postponed action on suggested additional pay for counselors for work during summer vacation, Bettini and Bagshaw saying they wanted to give it more study. "I can see a counselor sitting in the school all summer and waiting for business," said Bagshaw.

3. Approved a change order for the Terra Linda High girls' locker room which will add $768 to the cost.

4. Heard personnel director Ralph Hansen report that administrators have interviewed 233 applicants for teaching jobs to date and have hired 13 for the elementary district and 27 for the high school district. Ten elementary district and six high school district jobs remain to be filled for next year.

5. Received a request from the San Rafael Teachers Assn. that teachers be granted duty-free noon hours, and agreed to have a committee study what is done in other districts that have such an arrangement.

6. Authorized a call for bids, to be opened June 26, for rental of four school buses for next school year.

7. Instructed Superintendent Corona to write all those who have been suggested for membership on the school finance planning committee to learn their willingness to serve.

8. Authorized a contract with the county schools office for a summer school for deaf children, provided that Novato, San Jose, Dixie and San Anselmo districts also participate.

9. Refused to permit distribution of Elks Circus tickets through the schools, because of a county counsel's opinion that it would be illegal.

10. Approved hiring the following new teachers for next year: Phyllis Blagen, primary grades; Edward Cunningham, high school English; Larry Dubbs, high school art and crafts; Mrs. Barbara Frick, high school girls' physical education; Blair Gaven, high school Latin and social studies; Phyllis Hancock, elementary; Donald Hourigan, mathematics, Davidson Junior High; Mrs. Sally Irish, elementary; Sandra Morgenstern, high school girls' physical education; William Purrell, high school boys' physical education; Mrs. Irene Suppiger, high school English and foreign languages; Herbert R. Volin, high school mathematics.

11. Accepted resignations of Mary Lee McNall, fourth grade teacher at San Pedro School; Mrs. Bette B. Hutchinson, director of Terra Linda Nursery School, and Eric Lindberg, custodian at Davidson Junior High.

12. Approved the following teacher transfers for next term: Mrs. Edwin Hawbecker, homemaking; Peter Paulino, business education; Hugh Penman, social studies, and George Starn, mathematics, all from San Rafael to Terra Linda High; Mrs. Claire Brigham, English and social studies, Davidson Junior High to San Rafael High; Hugh Broyles, English, Davidson to San Rafael High; Sigmund Dattor, fourth grade, Sun Valley, to sixth grade, Hartzell; Mrs. Zelma Henshaw, kindergarten, MacPhail to Gallinas; Mrs. Elizabeth Jacobsen, third grade, Short, to fourth grade, Hartzell; Mrs. Liza Lazar, kindergarten, Gallinas, to third grade, Short; Mrs. Joyce McCaffrey, mathematics, Davidson, to sixth grade, San Pedro; Mrs. Margaret Merwin, kindergarten, West End to Short.

13. Authorized a contract with the county schools office allowing it to use a room at Laurel Dell and one at Short School next term for special classes.

14. Adjourned to 7:30 p.m. May 31, when the meeting will be devoted to the budget.

Ford Fellowship Granted Marinite

Gould is one of 11 graduate students in the university's Russian and East European Institute who have been granted foreign area training fellowships by the foundation. He will use the grant for further study in Germany.

Church Holding Picnic Sunday

The Lutheran Church of the Resurrection, Terra Linda, will hold its first congregational picnic on Sunday at Gerstle Park in San Rafael, announced John Ross, president of the board of directors.

Festivities will begin at 3:30 p.m. with games for all ages.

Mrs. Web Wright, chairman of the picnic committee, announced coffee and ice cream will be furnished, with each family to take its own food and eating utensils.

Law Beats Medicine For Emmy Awards

By JAMES BACON

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The law, as practiced on television, won out over medicine last night in the 14th annual Emmy Awards show.

"The Defenders," CBS-TV's potent courtroom series, won four Emmies to emerge as champ of the television awards.

The win, reflecting solid voting from New York members of the Television Academy, was an upset. "Ben Casey," televsion's sullen medico, was a favorite with eight nominations, but when the operation was over, Casey had struck out.

"The Defenders" won Emmies for outstanding drama; for best series actor for star E. G. Marshall; best director for Franklin Schaffner, and for best writing for Reginald Rose, its creator.

Even Queen Victoria did better than "Ben Casey." The Hallmark production of "Victoria Regina" won best actress award for Julie Harris; best supporting actress for Pamela Brown, and the show was adjudged best program of the year.

The best actor award went to Peter Falk, who was nominated for his role of a truck driver in "The Price of Tomatoes" on the Dick Powell Show.

Falk, who had been nominated for nearly every movie and television performance he has made since gaining prominence in the last two years, forgot his speech.

Shirley Booth, winner of a movie Oscar and numerous stage awards, won an Emmy for best actress in a series.

Don Knotts, the deputy on the Andy Griffith show, won his second supporting actor Emmy in a row.

Leonard Bernstein won two Emmies. One was for the outstanding children's program for his young people's concert with the New York Philharmonic tour of Japan.

The Gary Moore Show was named best variety show, and its comedienne, Carol Burnett, was named best variety artist.

Special trustee awards were given to CBS news for its tour of the White House and to Jacqueline Kennedy, the tour's pretty conductor.

Mrs. Ladybird Johnson, wife of the vice president, accepted the award for Mrs. Kennedy.

"If all history lessons could be presented against such a background—and with such a teacher—I'm sure we'd all like to go back to school," Mrs. Johnson said.

Heads of the news departments of ABC, CBS and NBC also got trustees awards for coverage of the year's most exciting television program—Astronaut John H. Glenn Jr's orbits around the earth.

Another trustee award went to Brig. Gen. David Sarnoff, chairman of the board of the Radio Corp. of America.

Following a pattern of recent years, at least one star found himself with an Emmy—and no show. Comic Bob Newhart, whose show has not been renewed, won the award for best comedy show.

Television Repair Frauds Get Probe Of Consumer Aide

By AUSTIN SCOTT

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Your television set goes on the blink. You call a new repairman, who fixes the set and hands you a bill for $120. You suspect you have been taken, but how do you prove it?

Several California counties have set up special departments to investigate and prosecute appliance repair frauds—frauds which Mrs. Helen Nelson, state consumer counsel, say are costing Californians millions of dollars a year. Mrs. Nelson lives in Mill Valley.

William J. Hales, criminal investigator with the Sacramento County district attorney's office, told a consumer frauds conference how his office checks complaints.

"First we get a television set," Hales said, "and technicians make sure it is working perfectly. Then we mark each part, so we'll know if any parts have been replaced."

Hales said his office frequently marks tubes, chassis and small electronic parts with a phosphorescent paint that glows brightly under ultraviolet light.

"Once we've marked all the parts and put the set back together," he continued, "we 'gimmick' it. We replace one good tube with a bad one—and we make sure the bad tube is near the back of the set, easily seen."

Hales said the set is then wiped clean of fingerprints and taken to a home where the owners have been told of the investigation.

The homeowners are instructed to act as if they want the set repaired as quickly as possible, and as if they know nothing about television repair.

The suspected repairman is called, and given a free hand on any repairs. When he returns he is asked for an itemized bill, and is always paid by check.

A Los Angeles investigator told of one such investigation where the repairman replaced half a dozen tubes in the "gimmicked" set, tacked on a $20 charge for "shop analysis," and presented a bill for $42.

"And you could have bought the defective tube for $1.52 retail," the investigator said. "We later found several of our marked tubes in his new tube stock."

Hales said the system usually works, but sometimes the suspects get suspicious.

"We had one suspect who returned a set with no overcharge," he said. "We heard later that he had an ultraviolet light in his shop."

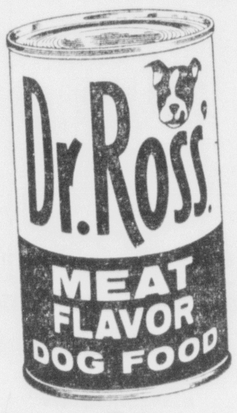

Three Injured In Rear-End Accident

Three persons, two of them children, were treated for minor injuries following a three-car rear-end accident at 1104 Fifth Avenue in San Rafael about 4 p.m. Monday.

Police said a car driven by Margaret Jennings of Richmond was "tapped" after stopping by a car driven by Katherine Robyns of Berry Lane, Ross. The second car was then struck by one driven by Wilma Beth Nehaus of 28 Maywood Drive, San Rafael.

Mrs. Nehaus, 28, suffered a cut left knee. Her son, Mark, 7, cut his left ear. Her daughter, Nickie, 5, suffered a bruised right arm. All were treated and released from San Rafael General Hospital. Police issued no citations.

District Attorney Asks For Ordinance On B-B Guns

Dist. Atty. Roger P. Garety asked Marin County supervisors yesterday for an ordinance on B-B gun, saying he did not wish to outlaw them completely but thought some control was overdue.

Recent reports of uncontrolled pot-shooting, said Garety, have included two instances of personal injury, one case of injury to an animal, and miscellaneous damage aggregating about $2,000.

"Some counties prohibit such guns, other restrict their use in the proximity of dwellings or by juveniles not accompanied by adults," said Garety. "I don't ask outlawing but I put the situation to you."

The board unanimously voted to ask the county counsel to survey the situation preliminary to offering some form of control ordinance.

Garety added that he had another problem relating to the general subject of "nuisances," in that neither he nor the county counsel has staff for case preparation.

The supervisors concluded that there should be general discussion including the county health department, department of public works, building inspector and planning staff, along with county counsel, and fixed the session for 9 a.m. June 8.

The supervisors also:

1. Appointed Lenora A. Becker intermediate typist clerk in the county clerk's office at $335 monthly, and Lloyd W. Mery fire warden in the county fire department at $440.

2. Following inquiry by Mrs. Ralph E. Adams of San Rafael about bus service to the civic center, learned that Cecil Allen has a proposal for extending his present San Rafael-Richmond bus service there.

3. Authorized annexation of additional Terra Linda areas to Las Gallinas Valley Sanitary District, praised by Supervisor Peter Behr as "one of the great success stories in the county."

4. Accepted a $22,072.96 bid from W. R. Ames Co. for steel bookstacks for the county library.

5. Ordered documents prepared for acquiring a Hicks Valley site for county fire department sub-station, following favorable water supply tests on Thompson property.

6. Recessed to 10 a.m. next Monday, instead of usual adjournment to regular Tuesday weekly session, for hearing on Tiburon incorporation and to make final decision on new allocations of courthouse space.

McLain's Home For Elderly Is Dedicated

FRESNO (UPI) — The multi-million-dollar senior citizens village, a dream-come-true of California pension promoter George H. McLain, was formally dedicated today.

The project, located on a 42 acre site in southeast Fresno, was developed under a mortgage guaranteed by the federal housing administration.

The Los Angeles champion of "old folks" hopes the village eventually will be expanded for 2,000 elderly.

The village is a planned complex of 81 ranch-style buildings which include 557 apartments, a community center, grocery, cafeteria, and medical facilities.

CHICKEN POX VICTIM IS AWARDED $75

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Television repairman T. R. McDonald was awarded $75 yesterday for chickenpox picked up on the job.

McDonald took the matter to court, charging Albert Morgan refused to pay him $165 he claimed due him for medical expenses and lost time after he caught chickenpox from 4-year-old Lavonna Morgan.

Morgan argued that he had warned McDonald the child had chickenpox and that he could enter the home to fix the Morgan television set at his own risk.

Judge R. S. Ronchi ruled in McDonald's favor, but reduced the payment to $75.

Realtors Told Marin Faces Bright Future At Luncheon Given By I-J

In observance of National Realtor Week, the Independent-Journal hosted more than 100 Marin County real estate brokers at a luncheon yesterday at Peacock Gap Golf and Country Club.

Guest speaker was William I. St. Sure, vice president and Pacific Coast manager of Ward-Griffith Co., national representative for the Independent-Journal and 64 other newspapers in the United States and Canada.

St. Sure pictured for the group the typical head of a Marin household—who, he said, is a white collar worker, semi-professional, a college man, under 50, married and has an average of 1.5 children. He said his income is $8,110 per year, the median for the county and the highest in California. He has lived in the county over five years and probably works here — not in San Francisco. He owns a home valued at $20,000.

These facts, he said, were based on a scientifically designed probability sampling of Marin households by Mervin Field and Associates for the Independent-Journal, and the Stanford Research Institute's analysis of newly released 1960 U. S. Census data.

"With this information we now have a sharper, clearer profile of the type of people who like to live in Marin County," he commented. "This should prove helpful to you because quite frankly some of your advertising copy, in my opinion, is a little wide of the mark."

St. Sure cited other figures on the projected growth of the Bay Area which show that it will move up from seventh to third place among the nine geographical areas in California between now and 1970.

"And we know that Marin County will continue to outpace most of the suburban Bay Area," he added. "By 1975 this county's population will go up two and one-half times and change from a present ratio of one to five to one to two with San Francisco.

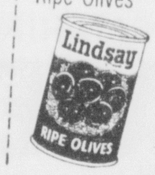

"It seems to me that competent people in your business face a very bright future indeed in Marin."

Del Norte is the northernmost California county of the Redwood Empire.

A Byword In Marin For Over 40 Years!

Kientz's . . . First in Marin in bread-baking over the last four decades. During that time, we have baked an estimated FIFTEEN MILLION loaves of bread, give or take a hundred thousand loaves. Even we were staggered by this number when we stopped baking long enough to figure it out. We average 800 to 1,000 loaves of bread each day and have for many years.

Kientz's . . . First in Marin since 1922 for cakes, wedding cakes, cookies, rolls, buns, pies, doughnuts, and delicious filled pastries. Our baked goods have been served to thousands of Marin families for parties, banquets, special events and ordinary day-to-day meals.

Kientz's . . . First in Marin in 1927 with automatically wrapped bread delivered to homes and commercial users. Routes started in Sausalito and terminated at the Pt. Reyes Light House.

Kientz's . . . First in Marin when we combined our bakery with a confectionary shop, operated by Alice Kientz, in 1929. Our candies were made on the premises by Bill Fusselman, our present Supervisor from Ross Valley.

Kientz's . . . First in Marin and first in the entire Bay Area in 1931 to bake and sell sliced and wrapped bread at 10c per loaf.

Supervisors A Little Iffy About Civic Center Tours

Uniformed girls might conduct guided tours of Marin County's new civic center, it was suggested to county supervisors yesterday by Mrs. Esther Dearth in proposing a concession be given to the new Marin Visitors Bureau.

County Administrator Alan Bruce welcomed the idea as "filling a blank," in that no budget provision for staffing an information booth or conducting tours is likely.

But objections which came up in discussion finally resulted in referral to the county counsel for an opinion on legal aspects.

There could be no compulsion to take such tours, suggested County Counsel E. Warren McGuire, because "citizens have rights to access to public records in county buildings" and it would be impossible to separate the Marin sheep from the tourist goat.

Doubt was expressed about charging a fee. Supervisor Peter Behr said policy should be decided—"either make a set charge, or have no charge and no tipping." He added that "it won't build goodwill for people to have to take the tour."

Supervisor William D. Fusselman pointed to "danger in inducing people to come in large crowds" but assured Mrs. Dearth he didn't mean he wanted to keep people away.

Planners Give Conditional Approval For Church Above Civic Center

Conditional approval for Marin's first Unitarian-Universalist Church, which will overlook the new civic center, was granted last night by the San Rafael Planning Commission.

The proposed church, a strikingly modern building planned to hug contours of the highest hill in the area, will cost an estimated $128,000. It was designed by Stephen Heller, San Francisco architect.

Grading for the four-acre site and extension of Channing Way is expected to begin this spring.

Commissioners, however, said parking facilities must be improved before approval for the building itself can be granted.

Richard Rodrigues, board member, said first third of the project, including chapel, parish hall, offices and kitchen, should start within a year.

The congregation, which has been without a minister for a year, has held services in the Tamalpais Women's Center, with Sunday School at scattered locations.

The San Rafael Planners Also:

1. Adjourned to 4 p.m. today to continue discussion of a 90-unit apartment building on Bayview Street to be called San Rafael Village. A representative of Seabreeze Construction Co. must fly from San Diego for discussion of the apartment, which commissioners have sent back three times for improvements in parking.

2. Voted 3-2 to approve 48 apartment units in buildings of three to five units each, planned by the Kaehler-Farrar Development Co. between Fairfax and Sonoma Streets.

3. Granted reluctant architectural approval for a 96-unit apartment on Canal Street at Medway Road, noting designer Armen Tatarian of Mill Valley was just getting in under the wire before more stringent parking requirements go into effect June 6. Owner is Herman Liebbers.

4. Approved a new parking lot on land owned by Wallace Clark of San Rafael next to the Pacific Gas and Electric Co. building at Fourth and E Streets.

5. Gave preliminary approval to subdivision of Loch Lomond Highlands, an extension into steep hills behind the existing Loch Lomond area on San Pablo Road. The land must first be annexed by San Rafael.

6. Approved split of a lot owned by P. J. Tarrant of San Rafael on Valencia Avenue between Belle Avenue and Jewell Street, and granted architectural approval for a 12-unit apartment building on one of the lots.

7. Approved remodeling of home at 1756 Lincoln Avenue into an office building, provided San Rafael Associates, owner, continues to lease adjoining property for parking.

8. Approved subdivision of land on Dominican Drive near Convent Court into three lots. Owner Kenneth Dorking has submitted a series of revised plans over the past several years attempting to get approval.

Lions To Show Film On Dope

The Sausalito Lions Club will present a film, "Narcotics, the Decision," at 7:15 p.m. Monday at the Alta Mira Hotel.

There is no charge to view the movie, according to Frank Trojanowski, publicity chairman, but reservations should be made through either Richard Urbais, 126 Lomita Drive, Mill Valley, or Manuel Pasquinucci, 1721 Bridgeway, Sausalito.

Sheriff Louis B. Mountanos and County Supt. Virgil S. Hollis, will be special guests of the club at a dinner meeting preceding the film showing.

Hub City To Hold Budget Hearings

San Anselmo will hold hearings on the 1962-63 city budget on June 6, 7 and 11, the city council decided last night.

Administrator Douglas Flautt reported the preliminary budget is nearly completed. He said copies will be printed by June 1.

The total budget figures are not yet known, but there appears to be no radical change from last year's budget, controller Alfred C. Kaeppel reported.

City fathers passed a resolution asking the State Department of Finance to take a special census of the city, to cost about $220. Administrator Flautt said the census estimate will probably not begin until July.

In other actions, the city council:

1. Decided to call for bids for repair of a dangerous footbridge at the end of Sais Avenue near Calumet Avenue. Cost was estimated at $5,000. The city has erected a "closed" sign at the bridge, but Henry Metten of 146 Calumet Avenue reported youngsters keep tearing the sign down and continue using the bridge.

3. Decided not to change the automatic signal at Sir Francis Drake Boulevard and Bank Street to a type that is regulated by cars passing over a lever on the street. Police Chief Raymond R. Buchignani said such a change would throw the sequence of signals out of order along Sir Francis Drake and could cause further congestion at the Hub.

3. Decided not to join the Assn. of Bay Area Governments at this time. Councilmen said they can see no particular advantage in joining.

5 Marines Going On Active Duty

The Marine Corps Reserve in San Rafael will send five Marines from the 14th Rifle Company to San Diego to begin six months active duty Thursday.

They are Robert J. Meader Jr. and Gerald P. Guerin of San Rafael, Dennis P. Auerhan and Robert L. Guis of Fairfax, and Richard A. Cruz of Modesto.

The privates will do boot training at San Diego for 10 weeks and complete their tour of duty at Camp Pendleton, Oceanside.

Silva Thanks Supervisors —Asks Help

Novato's Mayor M. E. Silva thanked Marin County supervisors yesterday for what he termed the "terrific" help thus far given by the county to Marin's newest city, and said more of the same is desired.

"Subdivision engineering and inspection, and all planning," said Silva. "We're growing and gradually putting on help, but we have only three-quarters of a million dollars revnue and still need your help."

When Supervisor Peter Behr said, "I think they want some assurance they can rely on," Gnoss moved a resolution of continued cooperation as at present.

The supervisors had discussed the problem of overtime work by the county planners, Novato paying the county $7,800 so far this year. Though this safeguards the county against loss, night and weekend work by planners has caused overtime pay in violation of policy.

Public Works Director Quits In San Anselmo

William Roe, public works director for San Anselmo for the past two years, submitted his resignation last night to join a private engineering firm in Oakland.

The city council accepted the resignation with regrets and best wishes to Roe on his new assignment. The resignation will go into effect sometime within the next two months. During that time, City Administrator Douglas Flautt will advertise for a successor.

Roe said his only reason for leaving is to better himself economically. He said he cannot disclose the name of the private firm at this time, but he has been offered better pay and opportunity for advancement.

WILLIAM ROE
Resigns for more money

Roe is now drawing $905 per month. The salary range for the job is $782 to $950.

Roe is San Anselmo's first public works director, hired after the office was created to include work formerly performed on a fee basis by then-City Engineer John C. Oglesby and as extra work by Fire Chief Nello Marcucci as building inspector and street superintendent.

Mill Valley Parks Unit Backing Proposition 5

Proposition 5 on the June 5 primary ballot, which proposes the state issue 150 million dollars in recreation bonds for acquiring and developing beaches and parks, was voted support Monday night by Mill Valley Parks and Recreation comissioners.

The commission, according to acting chairman Joseph C. Brewster, also recomended that other parks and recreation commissions in the county take a stand in favor of the proposition.

Survey Of New Airport Facilities Voted By Board

A survey of possible new county airport facilities adjacent to Hamilton Air Force Base was voted by Marin County supervisors yesterday, conditional on clearance of state gasoline tax funds for the project.

The motion by Supervisor William D. Fusselman carried 4-1, with Supervisor Peter Behr dissenting. Behr expressed doubt as to availability of state money.

The problem was solved when Asst. Auditor Michael Mitchell suggested that "before spending, check with the state." Behr said, "Let's give it unanimous support on that basis."

The survey was suggested by Carroll A. Snyker, executive vice-president of the Marin Industrial Development Foundation, and Eugene Trombley, chairman of the board's airport advisory committee, both of whom reported favorably on "informal discussions" with Hamilton officials.

Trombley said air base officials were "willing to go along" on a project for an airstrip on adjacent property, paralleling the Hamilton main runway, with use of the base control tower under civilian direction as well as opportunity to use fire and other facilities.

Supervisor William Gnoss, main supporter of the present county airport north of Novato, conceded that it is working out well for small planes but is inadequate for larger aircraft. He said he'd like to see this airport continued with gas money but he saw possibilities in Snyker's proposal.

When Fusselman asked the cost, Snyker said, "My guess is that all we'd need would be to establish the strip itself."

Unification Talk At Reed —2 Walk Out

Two Reed School District trustees walked out midway in last night's board meeting in protest over including discussion of unification, which was not on the agenda.

Trustee Leo Souza had submitted a five-page letter asking clarification of eight points in connection with proposed unification of school districts on the Tiburon Peninsula.

Trustees Alyce Farkas and Richard J. MacLaury protested they had not received the letter in time to study it. They asked it be put over to a later meeting.

Chairman David D. Ring said he had invited Dr. Earl C. Miller Jr., assistant education professor at San Francisco State College, to discuss the unification, and it would be discussed.

Without further comment, Mrs. Farkas and MacLaury walked out.

"Let the record show that they left in protest," said Ring.

Souza said he was not opposed to unification but to generalizations which "tend to mislead."

In his letter, Souza questioned size of the proposed district, state aid for construction and equipment, taxes required, and costs of constructing a high school.

"Will we always be operating on a shoestring?" he asked.

Miller and Supt. Edward C. Pino said no one could predict the specifics which Souza was seeking.

"We can't make a commitment. We don't know what a new board will do," Pino said.

Pino declared the area is in an extremely favorable position financially as the assessed valuation is growing faster than pupil population.

Miller said many figures in the report were based on highest possible financial needs.

"If the community voted favorably for unification but denied operating taxes or voted for bond leveling, the financial structure being proposed provides for so little leeway that a cut in the educational program would be almost inevitable," objected Souza.

He also pointed out that the new district must continue to pay its proportionate costs for the Tamalpais High School District schools.

Mrs. Joseph B. Wallace, chairman of the Marin County on school organization, who was in the audience, said she felt the Reed-sponsored unification study committee had done a thorough job but there are many questions which cannot be answered as no one can predict the future.

A special meeting has been tentatively scheduled for May 29 to hear a report from the unification study committee.

'GIT OFFA ME!'

San Rafael Planners Say Fill Can Start On Big Subdivision

Fill dumping for the first 21 acres of a proposed 170-acre subdivision that would transform the mud flats of East San Rafael into housing for 3,000 people can begin this fall, San Rafael planning commissioners decided last night.

First section of the Marin Cayes development, an extension of Canal Street, must be next approved by the city council. It is owned by the L. H. Lincoln Corp. of Lafayette. It would include apartments, single family homes, and land set aside for recreation facilities.

Commissioners held up approval of the entire development, saying a master plan for the entire East San Rafael area is needed. All agreed, however, the Lincoln development will benefit San Rafael.

"Whoever embarks out in that mud deserves a lot of credit," commented Commissioner Charles J. Hendrickson.

Underlying commissioners' reluctance to approve the entire Marin Cayes is a block of adjacent land owned by the Kerner-Bellam Realty Co. of San Rafael and zoned for industrial and commercial use. Hendrickson observed that such a wedge for industry would not create good overall planning for the area.

"We've talked with the owners and decided we can't acquire any more of the land," said L. H. (Abe) Lincoln. "But we feel that with a development the size of ours, we can make our own neighborhood."

If approved, the development will reach from the Canal Street extension to a point near the Bellam Boulevard interchange. Five to eight-story apartments would be built near the interchange end.

Houses would face on waterways throughout the subdivision, and apartment dwellers would use a large lagoon planned for the development. Land for a shopping center and school is reserved, Lincoln said.

Novato Council Votes To Hire Rec Director

The Novato city council again reversed itself last night on the matter of hiring a fulltime parks and recreation director.

This time, the council majority agreed to hire a director on Sept. 1. The vote was 3-to-2, with Mayor M. E. Silva and Councilman Lucille Cannon voting in the minority.

The council originally agreed to hire a fulltime director about July 1, and had city administrator J. Julien Baget advertise for one.

STATEMENT READ

The parks and recreation advisory commission then asked for two parttime directors for a summer program. The council then voted not to hire a director until next Jan. 1.

The recreation commission at a special meeting last Wednesday formulated a statement which Jack Sparrow, chairman, read to the council last night. It said in part:

"Without such assistance (of a director), this commission doubts it will be able to well and competently carry out the duties assigned to it by the council under the ordinance."

Commissioner Thomas Dent told the council that the commission originally had figured on a $13,500 summer program but had shaved $3,000 from the purchase of equipment to pay the wages of the director until Jan. 1.

Mayor Silva said the council had made a decision and should stick by it

TOO FAST

Councilman Howard Schoof countered that he wanted to see the council stick by its original decision and hire the director on July 1.

Silva said he thought the commission was going too fast. It has been looking for park sites to buy, but he was working on getting a 25-acre site "free to the city," he said. He refused to disclose any further information about such a site.

Councilman Everett Pozzi accused the commission of "getting the indians before the chief" in wanting to hire the assistants before the director.

Monte Maria Unit Asks Continuation

Residents of Monte Maria do not want the Monte Maria Community Services District dissolved, the Novato City Council was told last night.

E. Donald King, speaking for the Monte Maria Improvement Assn., said residents voted last Thursday to request continuation of the district.

The district is due to go out of existence next Dec. 31. King told the council. Residents have been satisfied with services of the district, which takes care of landscaping, and want it continued, he said. Residents pay an 85-cent tax for the district.

Mayor M. E. Silva presented certificates for competition of the basic training course at the San Francisco Police Academy to police officers James L. Grassley, Donal A. Merkley and Walter Weidauer. The three Novato officers finished in the top 25 per cent of their class of 32.

The council granted the Novato Garden Club's request to cut the sidewalk and plant two trees on Grant Avenue. The club is to make a master plan of planting all of Grant Avenue with trees.

The Novato City Council Also:

1. Authorized an agreement with Jack Caristi that he should post a bond to improve one-half of Second Street and Industrial Way a year after getting approval for a doughnut shop at that intersection.
2. Referred to the planning commission a request by Jerome B. Gilbert, Gus Ravelz and Frank Pinheiro to abandon a portion of Cherry Street from Armstrong Avenue to Railroad Avenue.
3. Called for bids to be opened June 12 on purchase or rental of two police cars.
4. Authorized the city administrator to get the architect Douglas M. Merrill of 95 Orchard Way to proceed with specifications on bringing the community building to city code standards for fire, plumbing and electrical equipment.
5. Designated Crocker-Anglo Bank as the official bank of the city for the next two years.
6. Accepted with regrets the resignation of Mrs. John (Betty) Machado from the Parks and Recreation Advisory Commission.
7. Heard Charles Joseph, director of public works, report the city will receive $9,600 more in gasoline tax rebates because population is now estimated as 24,476. The extra money will be used for purchase of Center Road right of way.
8. Adjourned to a special meeting next Tuesday to study the preliminary budget.

Nurse Plan Is Proposed For College

Directors of Marin General Hospital District last night instructed administrator William W. Turner to look into the possibility of getting a two-year registered nursing program at College of Marin.

The course hoped by the hospital board would be conducted jointly by the hospital and the college. Turner was to talk to college president Dr. Stephen E. Epler on the possibility of such a course.

Bids from six electric and X-ray firms for X-ray equipment for the new addition to Marin General Hospital were opened. The bids were referred to Turner and Dr. Russell W. Bernhard, radiologist, for study.

Turner told directors a surveyor from the joint commission on accreditation of hospitals is to inspect the hospital on June 6 on a regular three-year inspection.

Gnoss, Bruce Reach A Compromise On Office Space In Civic Center

Amicable compromise on the issue of civic center space for the county administrator and county clerk was reached yesterday.

Following discussions between Administrator Alan Bruce, Clerk George Gnoss and Architect Aaron Green, Bruce told county supervisors he was relinquishing the quarters initially assigned to him, swapping them for equivalent nearby space.

"I've come around to the point of view," he said, "that if original planning had taken into consideration the clerk, as it should have, something like this would have been worked out."

The late Clerk George Jones refused to accept administration building space, whereas his successor recently indicated he wanted to place two women there and have part-time provision for himself.

The new plan as outlined by Bruce and Green lets the clerk have three rooms next to the five supervisors' offices. Bruce moves next door and has an office of the same size as first planned, also an office for an assistant not yet provided, and clerical help, plus a lobby. All this was achieved by consolidating administrative and personnel space into what was originally provided for personnel alone.

Bruce's discharge of former assistant personnel director Stella Hughes has resulted in considerable curtailment of space needs.

"I think it's pretty good," commented Gnoss.

Green guessed that the space revision would cost about $1,200, but said $5,000 is being saved by various alternates including elimination of most automatic door closers.

The motion to approve was proposed by Supervisor William D. Fusselman and seconded by Supervisor Peter Behr, symbolizing agreement of two supervisors earlier in conflict over Bruce's "Cell 300' quarters.

Residents Win, No Apartments On Hill Near Tropicana

Residents living in one-family homes near the Tropicana apartments last night won a battle to prevent more apartments on their hill.

The San Rafael Planning Commission, obviously miffed at charges of allowing special privileges and spot zoning, cut short residents' protest and voted unanimously to deny rezoning of land between Scenic Avenue and Bayo Vista Way for apartments.

Marin County Abstract and Title Co., for the unnamed owners, had applied for permission to build garden apartments on the land, which is zoned single-family. Phillip Lygren, project engineer, told commissioners the owners would not pay for both widening Scenic Avenue and extending Bayo Vista, which residents said was necessary for safety.

The vote came after Raymond Morrison, former planning commissioner and resident on Bayo Vista Way, called spot rezoning a "club of special privileges."

"How many people here are opposed to spot rezoning?" he asked.

Twenty spectators rose like a trained ballet. Only persons not rising were L. H. Lincoln of Lafayette, developer of the proposed Marin Cayes, and friends with him.

"I don't take it in very good grace when people come up here and make broad statements about spot zoning," said Commissioner Charles J. Hendrickson.

The commission had previously twice approved rezoning of the land but been overruled by the city council.

"Pressure of the citizens has made the council reject this twice," said Commissioner Orlando Conti.

Longer Twin Cities School Day Proposed

Longer school days for Larkspur and Corte Madera children were proposed last night by Jack L. Mengel, president of the Larkspur School District board.

On suggestion of Gilbert Slusher, principal of Larkspur-Corte Madera School, the board decided to refer the matter to the Larkspur School District Teachers Assn. for further study.

First and second graders now attend school from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m., third graders from 9 a.m. to 2:45 p.m., and fourth through eighth graders from 9 a.m. to 3:20 p.m.

After report by Marvin Gootherts on a district mathematics study, the board authorized $2,000 to $2,400 for additional mathematics text books and supplies to be included in next year's budget.

Trustees accepted resignation of Barbara Carcione, kindergarten teacher at San Clemente School, who is planning to marry next month.

The board decided to next meet on June 5 instead of June 12 because of graduation ceremonies of Larkspur-Corte Madera and Henry C. Hall schools on the latter date.

Meeting Postponed

The regular meeting of the Terra Linda Community Services District board was postponed last night because several members were out of town. The meeting will be held next Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the community center, 650 Del Ganado Road.

Reed School District Losing Two

Reed Union School District trustees last night accepted the resignation of George H. Gregg, director of the materials center. Gregg has served the district for two years in developing the center and has assisted in developing the in-service training program.

Gregg is planning to obtain his doctor's degree.

Trustees also accepted the resignation of Nancy Sherry, district psychologist. Miss Sherry is also working on her doctor's degree and will seek a research position at the university level.

Both resignations are efective June 15.

Two new teachers were hired: Joan K. Peterson, to teach art at both elementary and junior high levels, and Dorothy E. Hanssen, to teach second grade. Mrs. Hanssen formerly taught in the Reed District and for the past two years has taught in Piedmont.

Trustees approved a school year of 179 days opening Sept. 4, and closing June 13, 1963.

School Missing Golf Equipment

San Rafael High School, which includes golf among its physical education courses, is short two dozen golf clubs.

Edwin N. Barlow, director of buildings, grounds and transportation, reported by letter to the San Rafael Board of Education last night that the shortage showed up when he made an inventory preparatory to taking some of the golf equipment to Terra Linda High School.

Where the clubs went, Barlow couldn't guess.

Also missing, he said, were eight dozen tennis balls.

Jail Shakedown Turns Up Razors, Hacksaw Blades

Eight hacksaw blades and a dozen safety razors were found inside the Marin County Jail in a routine shakedown yesterday, Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos disclosed today.

Chief Jailer Frank Christ said that two steel bars in the day room had been sawed through about one-eighth of an inch.

The sheriff said the jail must be searched periodically because Marin County has a work furlough plan whereby inmates are allowed to leave their cells each day of work and return at night.

The work furlough system is very successful, said Mountanos, but there is a greater chance that contraband can be slipped in by inmates who return from work each night.

Mill Valley Lions Elect Officers

William Gilmore has been elected president of the Mill Valley Lions Club for a one-year term. He succeeds Mack Staley.

Other officers elected were James Canepa, first vice president; Louis Pizzio, second vice president; Stephen Dimitroff, third vice president; Richard Ferns, secretary; Leonard Blakely, treasurer; George Coleman, Lion tamer; Paul Downs, tail twister; Leslie Lowenthal, barmaster, and Cecil Brown, bulletin editor.

Elected to the board of directors were Jack Myers, Richard Harrison, Jack Brabo, and Howard Langford.

Sonoma Favors Unification Plan

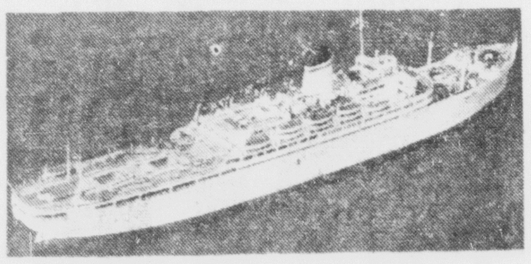

The Sonoma County Augmented Committee on School District Organization last night concurred with a recommendation by the Marin County committee to unify Tomales High School District with four Sonoma and three Marin elementary districts.

The three Marin districts are Tomales Bay Union, West Marin Union and Point Reyes School Districts.

The vote was 11 to 5 for the unification plan.

The proposal will now go to the State Board of Education.

Sausalito Waterfront Due Plan Study

Sausalito's waterfront, stretching from Shelter Cove to Marinship and sometimes referred to as "golden," will be the subject of an overall planning study, the Sausalito City Council decided last night.

The study was requested by Sausalito foundation president Kelso Norman, who added that foundation members would like to contribute a grant of money to the city to assist in paying for the study. No figure was suggested.

June 14 was set as the study session date. The council, Mayor Paul Micou said, will meet jointly with the planning commission and invite representatives of the recreation commission, Sausalito foundation, citizens committee for the Sausalito Marina, city planning consultant William E. Spangle, and a representative of the Urban Renewal Administration.

Norman said the foundation, a non-profit organization designed to maintain natural beauties of the city and enhance recreational and cultural resources, passed a resolution to ask the city council to take advantage of federal government funds available for city planning.

"Most important," said Norman, "is to find money to push the program to completion."

He said the foundation is interested in acquisition of waterfront land throughout the city and not just in Shelter Cove, where it has assisted in purchase of underwater lots.

He said the foundation wants to change the approach toward the waterfront lands from a "can't do" attitude to a "can do" one.

He said urban renewal may not be the best answer. Perhaps, he suggested, a group of affluent and civic-minded citizens might donate a million and a half dollars to the foundation, the funds to be made available to the city.

The council heard that the city salary survey study was not yet ready but that City Manager Charles A. Brown planned to have it completed for a meeting of the finance committee tomorrow.

The Sausalito council also:

1. Asked the planning commission to review the portion of the general plan which describes Rodeo Avenue as a major access to the city. Mayor Micou suggested it might instead become a four-lane access route part way down the hill, changing into two or more feeder roads.
2. Directed a stop work order be issued to Margy French and Evelyn Richards, building a duplex on a lot adjacent to 28 Cazneau Avenue, because of belief of the city that the building is being built on city property.
3. Adopted as an urgency measure an ordinance regulating use of Turney Street ramp stating as follows: It is unlawful to park any vehicle on Turney Street except to launch a boat; unlawful to use the float for diving, water skiing or swimming; unlawful to tie up to the float for more than 15 minutes and unlawful to operate a boat within 300 feet of the ramp in excess of five miles per hour.
4. Heard a request from councilman Michael Harris that parking be checked on Miller Avenue since he believes it is too narrow for parking on both sides of street.

VFW Rodeo Shapes Up For Western Weekend

The Novato Horsemen—Veterans of Foreign Wars Rodeo, held in conjunction with Western Weekend, will be presented at the arena on Bugeia Lane on June 17.

To handle the large crowd expected this year, 768 new bleacher seats have been added at the area, according to Neil Cullins, president of Novato Horsemen. It can now seat 3,000 spectators, he said. Last year hundreds of persons had to stand around the fences.

Cotton Rosser of the Flying 7 Rodeo Company, which provides the animals and professional riders from the national circuit, has reported that Novato has been marked as a site on which to concentrate the toughest stock and the best cowboy competitors, according to Joe Wright, rodeo chairman.

The program will also feature jack-pot relay races by four-man teams, a parade of massed colors by members of many Northern California riding clubs, barrel races, a beef raffle, and other events.

'Adjustment' Courses Get Going-Over

Courses and activities dealing with "life adjustment" were discussed by a panel of nine vice principals, counselors and teachers at Monday night's meeting of the San Rafael Curriculum Study Committee.

Chairman and moderator of the session was Hanlon Tharp, Davidson School principal.

The panel covered the areas of counseling, social studies and extra curricular activities designed to direct the student toward adjustment to an understanding of the world in which he will live and work.

Under social studies, these areas would include studies of state and federal constitutions, laws and political theory, the committee was told.

Counselors told of the portion of their work which directs the student along academic lines, while those concerned with extra-curricular areas discussed the function of service clubs, student government and class organization.

The final meeting of the study committee is scheduled for June 6 at which time a progress report on the year's study and recommendations will be prepared.

A silver mink cape worth $1,500 is missing from the home of Mrs. John Joseph Hopkins at 231 Elinor Avenue, just outside of Mill Valley.

She reported the loss Monday to Deputy Sheriff Herrick Morgan. Also missing are a black slip and a black nightgown. All three items were in a hallway closet.

Deputy Morgan said there was no evidence of forced entry.

Woman Hospitalized —Bicycle Hits Car

A San Rafael woman was hospitalized briefly late yesterday after a bicycle she was riding collided with a car pulling out of a driveway at 871 Francisco Boulevard in San Rafael.

The bike rider, Patricia Ann Hoadin, 20, of 12 Upper Freemont Drive, was taken to the hospital about 9 p.m. by the driver of the car, Donald Walter Stumph of 908 Fifth Avenue, San Rafael, where she was treated for a skinned knee.

San Anselmo Council Turns Down Apartment Request

San Anselmo City Council last night turned thumbs down on a proposed 20-unit apartment on Circle Drive, on the north side of the Miracle Mile near the San Anselmo-San Rafael border.

Eugene N. Wilson, spokesman for a group of San Anselmo businessmen who own the property, said the planning commission had turned down their request for apartment zoning. The area is now zoned for one-family residential.

The planning commission suggested that the area be divided into four individual lots. Wilson said four lots would be economically unfeasible.

Wilson said his group was in a quandary and wanted to know what the city councilmen would suggest.

City fathers explained th they normally rely on recor mendations of the plannir commission, and in this cas they can offer no suggestio other than what the planne have recommended.

Fences Don't Necessarily Make For Good Neighbors In Hub City

A guard rail fence that encroaches on a San Anselmo street right of way will have to be torn down within a week, the San Anselmo City Council ruled last night.

City Administrator Douglas Flautt reported the fence was built by Philip Anaya of 76 Allyn Avenue. A part of the fence borders Anaya's property line, but a portion extends into the Allyn Avenue right of way. The fence is six feet high, whereas the legal height limit is four feet.

Mr. and Mrs. Don V. Cowan, who live across the street at 75 Allyn Avenue, appeared last night to object to the fence. They complained that it makes it almost impossible for them to maneuver their car in and out of their own driveway.

On motion by Councilman Robert E. Rouse, the council ordered that the portion of th fence that encroaches into th city easement be removed. A for the height of the remain der, Anaya should take it u with the planning commissio the councilmen indicated.

Tired Mays, Davenport Benched

THAT'S ENOUGH! — Giant Willie Mays hits the dirt, top, for the third time at Dodger Stan Williams fires a fast pitch under Mays' chin at Los Angeles last night. Mays gets up to tell umpire Stan Landes and Dodger catcher Johnny Roseboro he's had enough. L.A. won 5-1. (AP Wirephoto)

Either Mike McCormick (1-1) or Gaylord Perry (2-1) will be called on tonight to try to salvage some of the San Francisco Giants' wounded pride as they go against the Philadelphia Phillies.

Art Mahaffey (3-5) was to start for the Phillies as the Giants return to Candlestick Park after dropping a two-game series to the Los Angeles Dodgers.

The Dodgers belted San Francisco last night 5-1. For the second night in a row, it was a home run by Dodger Tommy Davis that broke the game open.

Giants Manager Alvin Dark, whose crew still leads the National League by 2½ games, announced plans to rest outfielder Willie Mays and third baseman Jim Davenport tonight.

"The Dodgers have been strong contenders for years because of their bench," said Dark.

"It looks to me as if the only Dodger who may be tired at the end of the season is shortstop Maury Wills." And that will be from stealing bases, Dark added.

Tommy Davis' home run with a man on in the sixth inning broke a 1-1 tie last night and put the Dodgers out of reach of the Giants, who were having trouble at the plate.

Another outfielding Davis, Willie, singled in two more with the bases loaded in the seventh just for insurance.

So the Dodgers swept the two-game series—the first series the Giants have lost this year and their fifth defeat in the last seven games.

The outcome, before 46,636 in Dodger Stadium, left Los Angeles and St. Louis 2½ games behind the Giants, with the Cardinals a few percentage points ahead of Los Angeles.

The Giants saw more than they wanted of Tommy Davis. The evening before he hit a home run and two doubles and drove in three runs, which turned into an 8-1 Dodger triumph.

The red-hot Giants were cooled off with one run and five hits each evening.

Los Angeles hopes, however, that Davis doesn't do a repeat of the 1961 season. Last July he was leading the club in hitting, homers and runs batted in, and the Dodgers were leading the National League.

Then Tommy ran into a slump and in the last two months he got no homers and drove in but three runs.

And the Dodgers lost the pennant by four games.

Dodger pitcher Stan Williams (3-1) went into the ninth last night with a three-hitter. Then Orlando Cepeda and Mattie Alou singled and Manager Walter Alston called in Larry Sherry.

Sherry got Jose Pagan to hit into a double play and pinch hitter Willie McCovey grounded out to end the game.

Giants Open Home Stand That Could Be Just What Doc Ordered

CONNOLLY

Their heads "bloody but unbowed," the S.F. Giants are home for six games that could be very nourishing. Tonight they begin a three game setto with the lowly Phils and on Saturday and Sunday they engage Casey Stengel and his Mets.

You have to be awful "kerful" what you say about these so-called "patsy outfits." On the dope, the Giants figure to snatch all six games. But to do any figuring along those lines, one has to completely forget the just-ended two game series lost to the L.A. Dodgers. Our boys just didn't have it down south. They got good enough pitching most of the way from Billy O'Dell and Jack Sanford but the "power boys" with the club got short-circuited somewhere along the line, and, when that happens, everything else goes haywire.

A lot of lessons could be learned from the Dodgers. They proved you don't need so much power if you get airtight pitching and a dash of speed tossed in for good measure.

THE DODGERS certainly "boobed" our Giant catchers. Or would you blame it on our pitchers, who were not able to hold the baserunners close to the bags? Anyhow, the Dodgers stole base after base, just as they pleased.

There is no little concern over the prolonged slump of Willie Mays. While he has driven in a lot of runs with his homers, he has flip-flopped badly in the clutches. And likewise for Orlando Cepeda, the strutting Puerto Rican. Orlando has been hitting at a terrific number of bad pitches and is off stride in his timing, excepting for those blows he chases out of the park.

Jimmy Davenport, likewise shows effects of over-work.

IN A WAY the Giants are behaving up to par. Any club that gets off to a flying start has to ease up somewhere along the line and it is better for them to do it early enough so they can recoup.

The loss of Felipe Alou in such a crucial series as the Dodgers was a bad blow. His bat was sadly missed and no matter how much you like his kid brother, Matty, you've got to admit it's just like comparing one horse to one rabbit.

Manager Al Dark, who was just beginning to take his bow as the miracle skipper, now finds himself in a predicament. He has to come up with a fifth pitcher who can start. If Mike McCormick proves he is ready, Alvin may get a chance to ease his blood pressure.

All around the league the writing boys have predicted the Giants would fold in June. There was no apparent justification for pointing to this club as an el foldo one, but the chatter prevails. They recall past seasons when the Giants collapsed.

I CAN'T quite agree that losing a few games, like the Giants have done in the last few days, indicates anything but an expected letdown. They can't win 'em all.

The time to overcome a letdown for a top flight club is to plaster such clubs as the visiting Phils and Mets. But there is the rub. These two tailenders, on given days, are hard as nails and might clobber any team in the league. Let's hope they are off stride this week. Maybe a letdown by the tailend clubs would be just what the doctor ordered to get back on the winning pace.

AT NORTHBRIDGE

Petition Against Kids' Ball Field

San Rafael Board of Education last night fielded a hot grounder (with some fumbling) and relayed it to the city's recreation commission.

The sizzler was batted to the school board by residents of Northbridge, who leveled off at a proposal for a Pony League baseball field on the Gallinas School grounds.

Donald J. Monteleone, president of Northbridge Marinites, reported by letter and in person a 100 per cent vote by that organization against putting the ball field in the proposed location. He presented also a petition bearing 90 names, all against the plan.

Mrs. Jessie Stetson wrote expressing "disfavor as well as anguish" at locating a ball field near her home. She said junior high school youngsters now climb her fence and run across her yard. "Please do not inflict any more hardship on us by such a noisy and unruly group," she wrote.

C. Paul Bettini, acting chairman of the education board, took immediate umbrage at Mrs. Stetson's remarks.

"I doubt our school children are responsible," he declared. "Her home isn't close to the ball field location anyhow."

Board member Rex Silvernale wanted to know whether the neighbors' complaints would be stilled if the ball field were reversed, to put home plate at the far edge of the property from the homes of the neighbors.

Monteleone said, however, that traffic and parking problems are the major basis for objection.

A Northbridge resident who did not identify himself arose to object that the lot is not big enough for a Pony League field, anyhow. Perhaps Little League might play there and Pony League elsewhere, he said.

Bettini contended the Pony League draws few spectators, so would create far less traffic problem than Little League.

On motion of board member John M. Bagshaw, the board voted to refer the proposal back to the recreation commission, to determine whether (a) location of the ball field elsewhere in the area—perhaps at Santa Venetia School — has been considered; (b) whether it might be reoriented to keep the noise farther from homes.

SCHOOL'S FIRST

Marin Wins Title

Marin Catholic High School today celebrated its first varsity championship in the history of the Marin County Athletic League.

Coach Harry Moore's Wildcats clinched the baseball pennant yesterday with a 4-3 thriller over Terra Linda to give them a final league record of 9 wins and 3 losses. Redwood, which had a chance to tie for the pennant, was knocked out of contention by San Rafael, 9-4, also yesterday. In the league's other game Novato smashed Drake 9-5.

Moore heaped praise on John Forsythe, a junior righthander, who pitched scoreless, one-hit ball in three and two-thirds innings of relief of starter Dave Beswick in yesterday's come-from-behind win over Terra Linda.

Marin trailed 3-2 going into the bottom of the fifth, but the Wildcats showed their championship ability by getting the lead and keeping it.

In that big fifth third sacker Bob Williams opened with a single; an error and two fielder's choice plays made it two men on with two out. Then Frank Burch, pitching hero in Monday's 3-2 win over the same Terra Linda team, singled home the tying run and the next batter, John Odetto, whistled a line shot to third that was erred and Dave Beswick scooted home with the go-ahead run and Marin Catholic's first championship.

A couple of Redwood pitchers—Mike Cooney and Elmer Tivel—have a right to sing the blues today. Going into yesterday's seventh inning against San Rafael starting pitcher Cooney not only had a two-run lead but a no-hitter as well. And what's more, reports had come to the Redwood dugout that Marin Catholic was losing to Terra Linda. A possible tie for the MCAL crown by Redwood was in the making.

But as the final inning got underway Cooney walked a Bulldog, and Coach Al Endriss paternally walked to the mound.

"This is no time to fool around, kid," Endriss said kindly, checking also with catcher Roy Giusti on Cooney's pitches in that crucial inning—after the hurler assured the coach he never felt better.

"He's throwin' 'em faster than ever," replied Giusti.

Endries was satisfied. It was in the bag.

The next Bulldog batter, Monte Fitts, pulled the piling on the no-hitter as he smashed a two bagger. Bulldogs were now on second and third. Harry Meller stepped up to the plate to sacrifice and score another Bulldog. The Redwood nightmare and San Rafael dream was underway.

It got worse as another man got on base on catcher interference, and subsequently stole second, and a Bulldog was already on third. San Rafael's Tom Zunino continued the assault by whacking a base hit to score two men and put the Bulldogs out in front by a run.

Pretty soon two more were on base and Cooney walked a third to pack the bags.

Endriss waved in relief pitcher Elmer Tivel from the bullpen, and put him in the pressure cooker. But Tivel opened the lid too fast. His first pitch was cracked out of Albert Park by San Rafael third sacker Tom Williams, and there was no joy in Giantsville that night; all the frolic was at the county seat, around a grand slam hitter named Tom.

In North Marin the Novato Hornets galloped back against Drake after a four-run deficit in the second inning. A solo homer by first baseman Joe Colfer and singles by Mike Milano and Harry Cassidy plus a wild Drake pitch tallied four runs in the bottom of the third for Novato. Drake never recovered, and Novato poured on some more salt in the bottom of the sixth when shortstop Nick Willard whacked a two run triple, his third hit for four time at the plate.

AFL Outlook Bleak

By HAL WOOD

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — The future of the American Football League looked bleak, indeed, today in the wake of the failure of the anti-trust suit against the seasoned National League.

So bleak, in fact, that it would appear that some of the men involved must be specifically trying to get rid of their money. How else can one account for some of the statements from American League club owners?

"We have high hopes of breaking even during the 1963 season," says Baron Hilton, owner of the San Diego Chargers.

Hilton claims that his club failed to meet expenses during the 1962 campaign despite the fact the team's home attendance averagede nearly 30,000 per game, which was near capacity.

And if Hilton can't break even with that attendance, what is going to happen at Oakland this year? The Raiders are planning to play in a new, temporary park seating 22,000. If they fill that home date then they, ostensibly, would still be losing a bundle of money. Last year they averaged only about 5,000 per game attendance, playing mostly at Candlestick in San Francisco.

Robert L. Osborne, treasurer of the club, announces that the team dropped $619,288.38 last year. He owned 17 per cent of the controlling interest (of 51 per cent) and his personal losses for the year were $139,808.26. And he has sold his interest for $10,000.

It is probable that the Raiders were the biggest financial dud in the league last year. But the Denver Broncos, New York Titans, Boston Patriots and others must be taking a financial walloping, also.

COSTLY EXCURSION

If the league had won the $10,000,000 suit against the NFL, and the clubs had split up the proceeds, they still would have lost money, over the two-year period. Osborne figures his two-year excursion into the land of sports cost him, personally, more than $200,000.

National League owners used to claim that the break-even point for their clubs was around the 25,000-30,000 mark. It may take more than that to crack the nut these days.

And the chances are strong that the American League club owners have even higher expenses, in view of the war to sign players.

And how many American League clubs hope to come close to averaging better than 30,000 for each home game this year?

You're right: none.

Griffith To Defend Title Friday 13th

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UPI) — World welterweight champ Emile Griffith today looked forward to his first ring appearance since the fatal bout with Benny (Kid) Paret — a July 13 title defense when he will meet clever Ralph Dupas at convention center.

The Firday-the-13th championship bout is expected to attract a full house— about 7,500— and a $100,000 gate. Matchmaker Mel Greb, in disclosing the hard-hitting Griffith and boxing master Dupas would meet, said the bout would not be televised.

Griffith, 24, regained his championship March 24 when he knocked out Paret at New York. It was in that bout that Paret suffered fatal injuries and touched off a furor which led to a series of nationwide investigations into fighting as a sport, and the possibilities of completely or partially outlawing it.

To meet Dupas, 26, Griffith received a guarantee of $40,000 or 45 per cent of the gate. Dupas, of New Orleans, will take home only $10,000, but long has been looking for a crack at the title regardless of the pay.

Another Big Year Forecast For NFL

NEW YORK (AP) — The National Football League, riding high after its court victory over the American Football League in a monopoly suit, appears to be heading toward another boom year. Advance ticket sales indicate a record attendance of four million fans.

Commissioner Pete Rozelle said today that advance sales were up 10 per cent and might total over 400,000 season tickets. The league is holding its annual spring meetings here.

"Last year the advance sale was 368,075," said Rozelle. "At the current rate, this year's total should be about 405,000."

If the NFL does hit that 405,000 figure, it would mean that 2,835,000 tickets would have been sold before the first game, Sept. 16. That total represents about 75 per cent of last year's paid attendance when a record of 3,986,159 was set.

"There is every reason to believe we will have our first year of four million paid attendance," said Rozelle. "Minnesota and Dallas, the two newest teams, should become increasingly competitive and the league should be better balanced than ever."

MarVel Man Sets New State Mark

Dr. Oliver Sacks of the MarVel Athletic Club of San Rafael holds the new California State record in weighlifting.

At the Pacific Coast Championships in San Francisco last Saturday, the British medical doctor interning at Mount Zion Hospital in San Francisco, performed a full squat with 600 pounds across his shoulders.

Mike Dooley of the club won the 123-pound class for the second successive year by edging Joe Donshue of Oakland 510 to 500. In the 181-pound class Joel Brower of MarVel took a second place with lifts of 235, 245, 290 totaling 770. Carrol Varner, a favorite, was absent from the meet.

Terry Johnson, state champion in the 132-pound class, took a third place. He managed to clean 250 pounds, but missed a jerk.

Grand Prix Types At Indy

The 51-year-old race long has been dominated by the roadster type American cars with big four-cylinder engines mounted in front, sometimes in a horizontal position.

The successful grand prix road racers are much lighter vehicles, with independent suspension for each wheel and the engine mounted behind the driver. Jack Brabham of Australia brought an English Cooper-Climax of that type to the 500 last year and finished ninth.

The impact of the Cooper was heavier than its share of the purse. The engine gave away more than 100 horsepower to the conventional American Offenhausers and Brabham's performance was a tribute to excellent handling characteristics in the turns.

The Europeans, limited to 1.5 liter engines in the grand prix races, have no engine comparable to the high torque 4.2-liter Offy and none of the factory teams are entered in the May 30 race.

The American car builders got the message, however. Mickey Thompson, holder of several U.S. land speed records, built three cars in his Long Beach shops and they look very much like Coopers. They are powered, however, by bored-out Buick aluminum V-8s, with the piston displacement increased from 215 to 256 inches, the standard Offy size.

The Thompsons proved competitive with the conventional American cars in the 10-mile qualification runs. Dan Gurney, a grand prix racer, has one in the line-up. A wreck took out one of the others and the third was a shade too slow.

A similar light rear-engine car was built by the John Zink shops at Tulsa, Okla., for an experiment with a gas turbine engine. It stayed with the Offys on the turns and short straightaways on the ends of the 2½-mile track but, like the Cooper, lacked the brute power needed on the long stretches.

Mayor To Throw Out First Ball

Mayor John Reichmuth of San Anselmo will throw out the first ball of the third season of the San Anselmo Senior League at Memorial Park Sunday in pre-game ceremonies.

The day's first game starts at 1 p.m. between Currie Construction Co. and Iacopi Meat Co. The night cap will be between American Steel Fabricators and Guasco Super Market. The legaue will play a 15-game schedule ending in mid-July. Players are youths 15, 16 and 17.

A LA FLORENTINE — Chive-flavored eggs and Parmesan cheese atop a savory tomato sauce make an excellent lunch or supper dish.

Know Menu Terms?

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

When you see the word "Florentine" tagging a dish of eggs or fish on a menu, spinach should be one of the ingredients.

This combination hails from the city of Florence in Tuscany, Italy. It was adapted by French cuisine to describe a dish of eggs or fish arranged on a bed of cooked spinach topped with a Mornay Sauce — a cream sauce coupled with grated Gruyere or Parmesan cheese.

American cooks use the Italian-French idea in their own recipes, and here's one of them. We find this dish makes an excellent main offering for lunch, or a substantial extra for a party buffet supper. The stuffed eggs with their flavorings of mustard, Parmesan and chives are especially savory. If you do not have fresh chives at hand in your garden you can have them in your freezer, for American ingenuity has packed them conveniently chopped and frozen for year-round use.

Crusty rolls or bread, or rice make a fine accompaniment for this Florentine dish.

STUFFED EGGS FLORENTINE

- 3 tablespoons butter or margarine
- 3 tablespoons flour
- 1 can (1 pound, 12 ounces) solid-pack tomatoes
- 1 package (10 ounces) frozen chopped spinach (thawed and drained)
- Salt and pepper
- 6 hard-cooked eggs
- 2 teaspoons prepared mustard
- 2 tablespoons mayonnaise
- 1 tablespoon chopped chives
- ¼ cup grated Parmesan cheese

In a medium saucepan over low heat, melt the butter; stir in flour. Add tomatoes (including liquid) and cook and stir constantly until thickened, leaving tomatoes as whole as possible. Add spinach and salt and pepper to taste. Turn into a baking dish (10 by 6 by 1½ inches) or a deep 10-inch pie plate. Cut eggs in half lengthwise; remove yolks and mash with mustard, ¼ teaspoon salt, mayonnaise and chives. Refill whites with mixture and arrange over sauce; sprinkle with Parmesan. Bake in a hot (400 degrees) oven until hot and bubbly — about 10 minutes.

Cornflakes Coat Chops

We tried using the comparatively new packaged cornflake crumbs as a coating for veal chops and found they made a delicious addition.

Skillet Veal Chops
Buttered Macaroni
Scalloped Tomatoes with Onions
Salad Bowl Bread Tray
Rhubarb Compote Cookies

SKILLET VEAL CHOPS

- 4 loin veal shops (about 1 inch thick)
- 1 egg
- 2 tablespoons buttermilk
- ½ teaspoon salt
- ¼ teaspoon white pepper
- ½ cup cornflake crumbs
- ¼ cup butter or margarine

If the chops have long heavy tails attached, cut them off and use them for stew or grind them for meat patties. Beat egg enough to combine yolk and white; add buttermilk, salt and pepper and beat to combine. Dip one shop at a time in egg and then in cornflake crumbs. Heat half the butter in a large heavy skillet and add chops. Cook slowly until golden brown on bottom—about 10 minutes. Turn, adding remaining butter to skillet, and brown other side. Cover and cook slowly, turning as necessary, until chops are cooked through — about 20 to 30 minutes. To test for doneness, cut a small slit at bone for one chop; meat should look gray-white. Serve at once. Makes 4 servings.

Avocado Shapes

The various shapes into which avocados may be cut add extra eye-appeal to spring salads. Cut an avocado lengthwise into halves; rotate in opposite directions between palms of hands to separate; whack seed with paring knife, twist and lift out. Cut balls from half-shells with melon ball cutter. Or pull off skin, and with cut side of fruit down, cut lengthwise for slices, crosswise for crescents or lengthwise and crosswise for cubes.

All The Family Will Like This New Cake Recipe

Isn't it nice to know that something as utterly delectable as fresh strawberires are so good for you?

Not only are the small crimson berries an excellent source of Vitamin C, the nutrient we need daily, but "fresh strawberries, still with caps on and unpunctured, apparently retain their vitamin C content as long as they are edible, whether stored under refrigeration or at room temperature."

Follow Escoffier's lead and serve sugared strawberries gently mixed with orange juice. Or partner the berries with fresh pineapple for a first course, a salad or a dessert. Fold strawberries into whipped cream as a luscious filling for eclairs, cream puffs, indented cupcakes, sponge roll or sponge-cake layers.

STRAWBERRY CREAM CHEESE PIE

- 1 cup finely crushed graham cracker crumbs
- ¼ cup chopped (medium-coarse) walnuts
- ¼ cup butter (melted)
- 2 eggs
- 3 packages (3 ounces each) cream cheese (softened)
- ½ cup sugar
- ½ teaspoon vanilla
- Fresh strawberries

Mix crumbs, walnuts and butter; press over bottom and sides of an 8-inch pie plate. Bake in a moderate (375 degrees) oven 5 minutes. Beat eggs until thick and lemon colored. Beat together the cheese, sugar and vanilla until combined; add eggs and beat to blend. Turn into crumb crust. Bake in a slow (325 degrees) oven 20 minutes. Cool and chill. Garnish with halved fresh strawberries. If you like, you may gild the lily by accompanying the pie with a sauce made from fresh or frozen strawberries.

Men Especially Like Ribs, Fries

Aside to new cooks: Have you ever prepared beef short ribs?

If not, we urge you to try them. Men usually like these ribs a lot, especially when they're served with a barbecue sauce and french-fried potatoes.

In our college days, dunking french-fried potatoes into tomato catsup was in high favor.

Although standard recipes often advise allowing a half pound of short ribs for each serving, we find it's best to have at least three pounds for four persons. If there should be leftovers, they can always be heated for lunch the next day, and they save preparation time.

Beef short ribs are the ends of standing rib roasts. They're usually cut into serving size pieces so their length is about the same as their width. Each piece will have both fat and lean meat and a piece of bone; when you shop for the ribs, get meaty ones.

SHORT RIBS AND FRENCH-FRIES WITH BARBECUE SAUCE

- 3 pounds beef short ribs
- 1 to 2 tablespoons shortening
- 2 teaspoons salt
- ¼ teaspoon pepper
- ½ cup water
- ¾ cup catchup
- 3 tablespoons cider vinegar
- ½ cup chopped onion
- 2 tablespoons sugar
- ½ teaspoon dry mustard
- ¼ teaspoon chili powder
- 1 package (9 ounces) frozen french-fried potatoes

Brown short ribs (in serving size pieces) in hot shortening in a heavy kettle. Sprinkle with half the salt and pepper and add 2 tablespoons of the water. Cover tightly and cook slowly, turning occasionally, until tender—about 2 hours. In a small saucepan mix the remaining salt, pepper, water with the catchup, vinegar, onion, sugar, mustard and chili powder; bring to a boil; simmer 5 minutes. Remove meat to a baking-and-serving dish; pour sauce over; place in a moderate (350 degrees) oven with potatoes (in a separate container) until potatoes are hot through —about 30 minutes. Makes 4 servings.

Peachy Meat Loaf

Top meat loaf with canned cling peach slices about 15 minutes before end of baking time. Drizzle with a little chili sauce or catsup and return to oven to finish baking.

- 1 can (11 ounces) condensed cheddar cheese soup
- Milk
- 3 tablespoons finely diced green pepper
- 3 tablespoons finely grated carrot.

KEEPING HUSBAND ALIVE

Is He Smoking Excessively?

By KENNETH HUTCHIN, M.D.

Although your husband breathes in about 20,000 times daily, he does not need to worry about where the next breath is coming from. Respiration is a purely automatic process which will go on whether or not he thinks about it.

But people can breathe for years and never learn to do it properly. If your husband has any form of chest trouble, he should do breathing exercises under the supervision of a physiotherapist. Correct breathing is not merely something you do when you are doing your exercises. It is a habit to acquire.

A cough is not always a symptom of something wrong in the lungs. Some coughs are just bad habits in themselves. Others are caused by bad habits, such as mouth breathing or excessive smoking. Chronic inflammation of throat, infected tonsils, nasal catarrh, or chronic sinusitis may all be responsible for irritating coughs of long duration. With this type of cough, it is obviously futile to take a cough mixture without dealing with the basic cause.

CHRONIC BRONCHITIS is the commonest reason for a man to have a cough of long duration. In many industrial areas in Britain chronic bronchitis is the commonest male disease, affecting up to one-third of the working population. It is estimated that this disease costs Great Britain $420,000,000 annually in loss of productivity.

It hits the working man harder than the boss. Three skilled and five unskilled workers die for every fatality suffered by the managerial class. Although the disease is worse in cold, damp weather it requires the addition of air pollution to really get going. Chronic bronchitis is practically unknown among non-smokers.

It is difficult for a wife to know whether her husband's cough is anything to worry about. The important clues are its onset, its duration, whether it causes pain, and whether it produces phlegm. Generally speaking, any cough which has persisted for three or four weeks should be investigated.

Acute bronchitis is an infection of the bronchial tubes. It can result from a common cold which has spread downward or from influenza, but it also arises as a completely fresh infection. It is usually due to a bacterial infection.

It can quickly be brought under control by antibiotics. However, although there is really no serious cause of alarm if your husband contracts this disease, the nursing which you can give him at home remains one of the most important parts of the treatment.

DURING THE EARLY stages of acute bronchitis a fluid diet, consisting of hot fruit drinks, soups and milk foods, is necessary. Hot tea is one of the most effective ways of soothing a troublesome cough. After the acute stage, food should be served in the form of tempting, small helpings. The type of food is not nearly as important as the eating of it, so, above all, it must be appetizing. This is the time to forget about special diets and to realize that a little of what your husband fancies does him good.

You must remember that those who have already had it are the most likely to contract the disease. Complete recovery from the damage to the mucous membrane of bronchial tubes takes a very long time.

The heavy smoker who has a chronic cough needs investigating. If your husband has a chronic, dry irritating cough do not let him shrug if off as only his "smoker's cough." Nag at him until he goes to have his chest checked, for an X-ray will show most forms of lung disease at a very much earlier stage than a doctor's stethoscope. And, what is more, you must dissuade him from smoking as much as he likes just because his chest X-ray is normal this time.

The man who refuses to make use of the available facilities for chest X-rays, is lazy, foolhardy, or is just living in the past. Whichever it is, it is up to his wife to make him come to his senses.

It is a clearly established fact that excessive cigarette smoking is a contributory cause of lung cancer. Many things which are a blessing to mankind in moderation are a curse in excess. The nicotine habit falls into this category. Chest diseases, other than lung cancer, can be caused by excessive cigarette smoking. Certain forms of heart disease are linked with it also. It has been shown by research workers that middle-aged, heavy smokers are at greater risk from coronary thrombosis than middle-aged non-smokers.

TUBERCULOSIS OF THE lung itself is more likely to develop in those who smoke. Several forms of stomach disease can be affected by cigarette smoking to a much lesser extent. Many of these conditions, which are far more common among cigarette smokers than non-smokers, are far more important killer diseases than lung cancer itself.

Many use cigarettes as tension-easers; nevertheless, once the habit has become an addiction, it is no longer a tension-easer. It has then reached a point where it is a tension creator.

The man who smokes an occasional after-dinner cigar, perhaps only once a week, derives more pleasure from it than the sum total of the smoking habit of a man who smokes 40 or 50 cigarettes a day. The pipe smoker is probably the one who finds that smoking relaxes him more than anyone else.

"Should my husband give up smoking?" you may ask. If your husband is an excessively heavy smoker the probability is that he is unable to cut down his cigarette smoking without giving it up completely. A man who is capable of reducing his smoking to sensible proportions does not need to stop smoking in order to save his health and possibly his life.

IT IS POSSIBLE for your husband's doctor to help him over the initial stages of smoking reduction. Not only by giving him mild drugs, but also by advice.

What are sensible proportions? The number of cigarettes I have in mind is—only five a day!

A certain number of people who succeed in stopping smoking for a couple of weeks will find that they can do without it altogether afterwards.

If your husband is a heavy smoker the only time he can stop is today. Tomorrow is no good. I know many men who are going to stop tomorrow—they have been for years!

Marin Music Chest Report Tea Set

After weeks of campaigning for subscriptions to the Marin Music Chest's summer concert season which opens June 17 in Forest Meadows, San Rafael with the William Hall Chorale, district chairmen and workers will meet at 2 p.m. Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Milton Esberg in Ross to hear the results of their efforts.

Members of the executive board, artistic council and board of directors will also be present, Mrs. Samuel Archibald, music chest president stated.

Mrs. Archibald will say a few words of welcome, then turn the meeting over to Mrs. Alex Gorman, Marin drive chairman who will call upon district chairmen for their reports. Following the business meeting, a program will be given by four of last year's music chest scholarship winners including Jan McCready, soprano; two pianists, Katherine Winslow and Mary Hall, and violinist, Sharon Johnson. Tea will be served following the program.

Mrs. Hugh Middleton is in charge of arrangements assisted by Mesdames Frank Howard Allen, Boys Stewart, Ardath Blank, Eva Kirschner, Natalie Andreiotti, Harrison Leppo, who will preside at the tea table. Receiving guests will be Mesdames Archibald, Alex Gorman, Hugh Middleton, William Rattray, Carl Riznik, Eva Kirschner and Mrs. Esberg.

Others assisting include Mesdames Ragnar Thaning, Neil Brogger, Sidney Dorn, J. H. Blumberg, Charles Clark, Dale Frady, Ernest Held, Joseph Guilfoyle, Eugene Lloyd, Paul Romer, Thomas Zivic.

The appearance of the San Francisco Ballet in Forest Meadows, after an absence of two years, has created great interest, Mrs. Archibald stated. The ballet will be accompanied by a 32-piece orchestra under baton of Samuel Gerhard, musical director for the company and conductor of the Oakland Symphony Orchestra. Other artists to appear this season under auspices of the Marin Music Chest are Grant Johannesen, pianist; July 8 and Mary Costa, leading soprano of the Metropolitan and San Francisco Opera Companies. This is Miss Costa's first appearance on a Marin Music Chest summer series.

Easy-Do Dressing

In a jar with a tight-fitting lid, combine ½ cup French dressing and 2 tablespoons each chopped parsley and crumbled blue cheese. Add 1 tablespoon instant minced onion and shake well to blend flavors.

Washer Gadget

A new device eliminates the need for scrubbing hand laundry. The gadget, made of unbreakable plastic, rustproof steel and rubber, works thusly. Fill a basin about three-quarters full of suds, slip your hand inside the plastic shield of the washer and press down, lift up and repeat for from two to five minutes. A spring built into the perforated rubber nose creates a powerful action that penetrates fabrics, removing dirt rapidly.

THE PARENTS' CORNER

By RICHMOND BARBOUR, Ph. D
Guidance Counselor

Guidance Workers Discover That Drop-Out Rate Figures Enlarged

Have you been following the dropout debate? Critics say one-third to one-fourth of our high school students quit school before graduation. They scold our teachers for it. But educators claim the critics exaggerate badly. They say only a few depart. I enjoy squabbles, don't you? My trouble is I can't keep out of them.

I've been checking the dropout studies. I find they do exaggerate. Here's the way they do it. In the studies, researchers assumed every pupil who left school without a known destination had quit, and ended his schooling. Unless they knew for sure where he went, he was called a "dropout." That was a mistake.

For example, look at city "A." Last summer over 1,200 high school pupils moved away. The schools were closed. The kids who moved couldn't get transfer slips. They did not report where they were going. Researchers turned up in September and labeled them all as dropouts. Then the school district's guidance workers got busy. They checked with the friends, neighbors and relatives of the missing youngsters. They wrote many letters and made many phone calls. They found that fewer than 200 had actually quit school. Over 1,000 were studying elsewhere. They shouldn't have been called dropouts at all. But they were.

Or take city "B." The school bookkeeping there is sloppy. Secretaries give transfer slips to some of the kids who move, but not to all of them. The schools "lose" many pupils that way. So city "B" seems to lead the state in dropouts. Actually it has very good holding power.

So take the dropout studies with a grain of salt. Schools aren't as bad as they are made to seem.

READERS' FORUM

(Q) "Is it really necessary for one hundred per cent of the pupils to stay in school? Aren't a few of them better off working?" M.N.T.

(A) Yes, some are—especially the older pupils who learn very slowly.

Two Schedules For Immunization Prove Successful

Two schedules for immunizing infants with oral live poliovirus vaccine were reported generally satisfactory in the Journal of the American Medical Association.

Considering the desirability of immunizing infants against polio at the same time that other immunization procedures are performed, Drs. Randolph Batson, Amos Christie and William J. Chestman, Nashville, Tenn., advised that vaccine against Types I, III and II are being given singly in that order at 6 weeks, 12 weeks and 18 weeks of age, or that vaccine combining all three types of poliovirus be given at 6, 12 and 18 weeks.

Infants immunized on these two schedules developed the highest level of protection in a study in which 90 infants were fed Sabin vaccine on five different schedules, the physicians said.

Babies immunized on the first schedule did not respond to Type II vaccine as well as had been expected, they said. This may have been due to interference from other intestinal viruses which are prevalent during the summer and autumn when the polio vaccine was administered, they said.

In view of such possible failures, the researchers said, an additional dose combining all three types of poliovirus should be considered at a later date.

The study also indicated that even a high level if immunity transmitted by the mother to the infant did not block the immunizing effect of the vaccine, they said.

Keep The Car Neat And Clean

AKRON, Ohio (UPI) — Most women pride themselves on their housekeeping, but devote little time to good car-keeping apart from cleaning the windows occasionally.

Upholstery and carpeting should be vacuumed frequently. A regular whisking is an alternative but not as satisfactory. Vinyl upholstery can be wiped with a wet cloth or sponge.

Windshield wiper life will be prolonged if the rubber blades are cleaned regularly, using household ammonia or a similar cleaner. Wiping dust and mud off headlights betters illumination for night driving.

Blessed Sacrament Guild Plans Dinner

The Blessed Sacrament Women's Guild in Santa Venetia will hold a pot luck dinner on Monday at 7 o'clock in the parish hall.

Theme for the event is "The Guilded Age." Mrs. Vera Angell is chairman with Mrs. Salley McGillis, co-chairman and Mrs. Marion Herrera, entertainment chairman.

All Purpose Front Room Can Also Serve As Formal Parlor

CHICAGO (UPI)—The all-purpose front room that serves as living room, family room, library and often dining room can serve as a formal parlor as well.

The trick is to have two sets of draperies and rugs — one for everyday, the other for Sunday best. A set of slipcovers in dressy fabrics—brocade, velour, matelasse—completes the transformation.

As demonstrated by Burlington Industries at the International Home Furnishings Show, the change can be quick. The demonstration room used outdoor colors—blues, white and greens—for everyday.

Draperies were blue and white striped mattress ticking, while the sofa also was covered in ticking in a narrower stripe, overprinted with blue flowers and green leaves. The rug was a washable blue and green tweed and other upholstered pieces were in shade of blue. Decorative accessories were green, blue and white.

All fabrics used for the everyday room were durable, resilient, and washable to be suitable for the rigors of family living, including pets climbing on the furniture.

In style, the furniture—modified Directoire — was chosen for its adaptability to the dressier fabrics used to create a formal room.

Formal dress for the room utilized a color scheme of warm gold and melon. Draperies and wall panels of matching fabric were of gold jacquard damask, wing chairs were covered in a novelty textured melon, and a stylized slipcover of rose patterned matelasse in irridescent gold and melon covered the sofa.

Control Yourself When A Headache Makes You Tense, Irritable

Take the Ingredients 3 out of 4 Doctors Recommend for Headache Pain. In Minutes — the Pain Goes, Also Its Tension and Irritability.

New York, N. Y. — It's a medical fact that pain from a tension headache can make people so irritable and highstrung they lose control of their tempers and take it out on those around them.

That's why tense, nervous headaches call for the stronger yet safer medication in Anacin®. Be sure it's Anacin you take because Anacin is like a doctor's prescription. That is, a combination of ingredients. Anacin goes to work instantly to relieve the pain and its tension and irritability. In minutes you feel 'great' — in control again and all without tranquilizers or narcotics of any kind.

Here's why Anacin gives such fast, long-lasting and more complete relief. Anacin is different and contains extra ingredients missing in aspirin and still missing with buffering. Extra ingredients which 3 out of 4 doctors recommend and which many doctors themselves take when they have headache pain.

It's this big difference in Anacin (the extra medication) that makes the big difference in the way you feel. Anacin Tablets contain no narcotics, do not form a habit or leave one depressed. They do not irritate or upset the stomach.

See if the stronger yet safer medication in Anacin doesn't work better for you!

We Sadly Urge 'Yes' Vote On Beaches, Parks Bonds

Not since 1928 have the voters of California been asked to pass a bond issue for recreation. Since then, when a $6,000,000 bond issue was approved overwhelmingly, the state's beaches and parks program has grown and developed into one of the finest system of state parks and recreational areas in the nation. And it has all been on a pay-as-you-go basis.

Therefore it is with no bubbles of happiness that we contemplate a $150,000,000 bond issue on the June 5 ballot. Proposition 5 calls for us to abandon the pay-as-you-go parks and recreational areas. This was inevitable as soon as the Brown administration decided to do away with special funds, like for beaches and parks, and mingle all state monies into one big pot. When that happens, about the only way to earmark funds is to pass specific bonds. It is discouraging because it means the cost of the property will be about doubled by the cost of financing.

Yet on June 5 we will face this alternative: Either pass the bond issue or see the state parks system slowly strangle. This is something which must not happen.

The bond issue goes much further than the state parks program ever did. Only $95 million of it goes directly to beaches and parks. Of this amount between 15 and 25 per cent must be spent for development of state facilities, either new or old. The remaining 85 to 75 per cent is for acquisition of new park areas needed now and in the future.

But even this must be divided up on geographic grounds. Forty per cent of it must be spent south of the Tehachapi Mountains; 40 per cent must be spent to the north; the other 20 per cent can be spent where it is needed most.

$45 million is made available to counties, or to cities and counties jointly, for acquisition and development of regional daytime recreational facilities. Half of this money would be appropriated to the counties on the basis of their 1975 population estimates, the other half where needed most. (Marin's share, with an estimated 368,900 population in 1975, would be $334,575.)

The remaining $10 million of the bond issue would be split between the Wildlife Conservation Board and the Division of Small Craft Harbors.

The legislature has, however, held a strong string on the spending of the monies. None of it can be spent without the specific legislative approval of each individual project. The only exception is the $5 million allotted the Wildlife Conservation Board, which can spend its money as it sees fit.

But each county or city-county project, each small craft harbor and each state park, beach, recreational area or historical monument must have its plans approved by the legislature — or no money.

We regret that such a bond issue has been put on the ballot. We have always supported the philosophy that funds from natural resources should be used to support other natural resources. Thus we would have hoped that tidelands oil funds would continue to provide for preserving recreational areas.

But that question has been decided for us. Our choice is more limited. We sadly recommend a "Yes" vote on Proposition 5.

Marin's War Of Roses

Roses which are such a pleasant part of Marin's late spring landscape have a host of enemies. Every gardener who has them must be a zealous guardian.

Roses are victims of several fungus type diseases, prominent among them are blackspot, mildew and rust. Hundreds of insets agree that roses are lovely and take them for lunch. Slugs, snails, rabbits and deer love their tender little leaves.

Raising roses is wrestling with Nature. If they yield properly, it is evidence of a superior technique or just plain luck.

HAL BOYLE'S COLUMN

Want To Help Tecumseh, Okla., Build New School? Sure, You Do

By FRANCIS STILLEY
(For Hal Boyle)

NEW YORK (AP)—Old school ties remain strong and that's why I'd like to do something for my old high school in Tecumseh, Okla.

However, it grieves me to send word to Tecumseh that I can't send $90,000.

They want to build a new high school, and that's why they need the $90,000. Maybe if I try hard, I can manage $9 of it.

What? Tear down those sacred halls, where trod my adolescent feet of yesteryear? Where I learned at the hand of some of the worthiest schoolmasters and marms ever to rap my knuckles and knuckle-head?

Well, as I get it, if those sacred halls of my revered high school of 1916 vintage aren't torn down they are going to fall down.

"I don't want to see it go. It belongs to me. I belong to it. Let the floors sag. Let the roof leak. I shall keep it and cherish it forever, just the same."

But anyway, they need a new building before education collapses in Tecumseh, Okla.

I wasn't aware of this until I got a long-distance call a while back from an old hometown friend, Jeannine Brooks, nee Cooper. She wanted my help, as a loyal alumnus.

She wanted me to send out the word to other loyal alumni to send money. Well, I said, I don't know just how I can do that. Put it in the newspapers, she said. But I said, I can't put anything in the newspapers, I just write and the newspapers use whatever they feel worthy.

AW, SHE SAID, I know all the papers will be glad to help us get a new school. That's worthy, isn't it? she asked.

Anyway, it seems they have thought up a pretty good gimmick back in dear old Tecumseh.

As I understand it they want to build the basement first and use it as a combination tornado shelter, bomb shelter and fallout shelter—and maybe even a lunch room—while they're scrounging up more nickels to put the high school on top of it.

I HOPE TECUMSEH gets its new school built. I hope I can help by getting the word to the loyal alumni. At least the homefolks are just asking us, not Uncle Sam, to help dig up the money.

But I'm going to keep my dear old high school with me always, just the same.

It's mine.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

West Marin Needs Best Answer

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

After reading recent publicity, both pro and con, and attending various meetings on this topic, I am writing to express great concern against this proposed West Marin unification with the Tomales District. I have hopes that it will to some extent be informative to those who, heretofore, have been "brainwashed" with this same proposal that was previously rejected by our State Board of Education, and to bring to their minds, questions with "food for thought," which those who for the first time, perhaps, have been awakened to an "education revolution" in this West Marin area.

Our very own West Marin School Board recently loudly protested this very same obsolete unification proposal at one of their recent board meetings. However, suddenly, our board's decision has been changed and split leaning in favor of it, and this most certainly demands more detailed public explanation! Proponents of this plan suggest the only American or democratic way of making this a unanimous decision or solution to this problem is to put it to the voters of this area.

If this should be the end result or only final alternative, it certainly produces questions for all concerned to bear in mind, i.e.:

Are you willing to vote for a proposal where your taxes already are rapidly rising and the benefits derived from your money are not equally rising, or where the "facts" have not all been put on the table?

Do you approve of being voted into a one-sided proposition, where no other alternative or consideration has been studied which might bring our academic as well as geographic standards up to meet the needs of all concerned in an area such as this?

Certainly, we are not against the word "unification," but should we be forced to unify with any district by bringing this topic to a vote at a time when the master plan for this area is over a year's time from becoming a reality, and which most certainly needs and deserves sincere concentrated study?

Should we not have a few more facts, figures and actual statistics brought out into the open by our school board before we are forced to a vote?

Have you been informed of the proposed P.G.&E. power plant in Sonoma County; that this will be a 16-year project, and that there is a possibility with present school bills now pending before the state legislature, that the Tomales District may stand a chance of never benefiting from this assessment?

In other words, why put ourselves into a position to be easily voted into a proposition which we may later find was not completely fair and square, and which may prove to be next to impossible to get out of, by this very same means of voting?

It is obviously apparent that this area is rapidly becoming a combined rural and suburban community, and the basic academic standards for this rapidly growing community should be given careful, conscientious study . . .

I have not taken the time to write this letter from either hearsay or propaganda, but the fact, I, too, had to attend Tomales High School because no other school was available, and my family eventually moved to a district with better academic and geographic standards to complete my education. Now, with three small children of my own, I have only one hope remaining, that I shall not again be forced to move out of this rather congenial area, that my children will possibly be able to get the best high school education available, in the only community they have ever known . . . West Marin!

REMEMBER WHEN

10 YEARS AGO

Marin County and Mill Valley informally agreed to foot a $1,000 bill for study of flood control systems in upper Richardson Bay including the controversial Urquhart plan.

Pres. S. H. Kaufman of the Strawberry Property Owners Assn. declared that county supervisors had been "playing footsie" with County Clerk George S. Jones through asking the planning commission to reconsider its denial of commercial zoning for Jones's Alto-Strawberry property. Nobody else, said Kaufman, gets "that kind of consideration."

20 YEARS AGO

Marin County's 1,500 air raid wardens received a 27-page Civilian Defense Office handbook containing instructions for local organizations throughout the county. It was announced that the county had 20,000 registered volunteers for defense work.

Insurance on the Golden Gate Bridge was cut from eight million dollars all-risk to $6,663,000, omitting what is called "target risk" covering such things as earthquake dangers and structural deficiencies.

Harsh Common Market Terms For Britain Affect Political Union

YESTERDAY, I tried to describe how relations between English-speaking nations and the Common Market (officially, European Economic Community) are affected by the U.S. nuclear monopoly and Britain's special connections with it. There lies the fundamental difficulty confronting the grand project of British membership in and American partnership with the Common Market.

While the Common Market, as established, deals only with economic relations, it has been agreed that all six members will soon sign another treaty, now being negotiated, to establish a political union. Object is to create a new great power, to be known not as France or Germany but as "Europe." It is in formation of this new political entity that issues of British-American nuclear connection arise.

ALL OF THIS is not, however, the subject of the negotiations just begun in Brussels. They are concerned with whether and how Britain can be admitted to the Common Market. They are not avowedly concerned with British membership in the new political entity to be created. The political and strategic issues are controlling, at least in France. How they will be resolved no one knows.

Unresolved, these problems will not help solve the very difficult economic issues. To understand the economic difficulty, around which Brussels negotiations revolve, we must realize the Common Market's basic compact.

IT IS A bargain between French agriculture and German industry. Key to this bargain is that French agriculture, being modernized is increasingly productive. At bottom Common Market enables France to sell the bulk of the basic food—wheat and meat—protected against Canada, Australia, New Zealand, the Argentine and the U. S. by a common variable levy to prevent imports, no matter how low in price, from competing in Europe. In return, German industry primarily, but also Italian, Belgian, and Dutch, have free trade privilege within the market and protection against the rest of the world by a customs union.

The reciprocal relation between French agriculture and German industry is comparable with our own economy. The U.S. is a common market with an economic compact between the industrial Northeast and the agricultural South and West. On a smaller scale, of course, Europe's Common Market in Europe rests on a similar reciprocal system.

BRITISH APPLICATION to join the Common Market raises difficult questions on both sides. Britain buys most of her essential food outside of Europe. The food enters Britain at the low world price, and no significant tariff is imposed. British people enjoy cheaper food than do continental people.

The French pay their farmers $2.25 a bushel for wheat which brings only $1.60 on the British market. In Britain, wheat flour retails at about 18 cents per kilogram; in France, Germany, and Italy it costs about 21 cents. Beef costs the British consumer about $1.66 a kilogram; it costs French and Italians about $2.16.

(TOMORROW: More on Common Market Problems.)

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

Alistair Cook, on a lecture tour through the Ozarks, was strolling through a sleepy village one afternoon when he discovered his watch had stopped. Spying an indolent native rocking slowly on the porch of his dilapidated dwelling, Cook called out, "I wonder if you know the time, sir?" The native studied the shadow on his porch, shifted the "terbacky" in his cheek, and answered, " Bout four and a half planks till supper time."

Bill Localio suggests this can't-miss lineup for an all-star baseball squad: Ship pitching; Measles catching; Cotton batting; Henry fielding; Engine warming up; If at first, and Baby bunting. Two substitutes, in a crowded hotel, are doubled up.

A second-string catcher on the Los Angeles Dodgers once set out in hot pursuit of a Pasadena millionaire's daughter. Weeks later his manager asked, "Howya doing, Buster, with that society babe?"

"Not so good, Walt," admitted the catcher. "So far it's no hit, no runs—and no heiress."

I-J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

By RANDALL GOULD

If Dogs Are Outlawed, Here Come The Goulds On Bike Built For Two

Age makes itself known to us in various unfortunate and sometimes embarrassing ways. But considering my antiquity, I've been fairly exempt from reminders up to last week.

What happened last week? Well, I went up to the Mendocino Coast very dashingly in a youngish-type sports car, but not kidding myself one bit.

I'd come face to face with the fact that I no longer have the nerve to own a bicycle.

This, from the onetime two-wheeled terror of Bozeman, Mont.! The lad with hide scuffed off elbows and knees from taking headers onto gravel, the wild "look ma, no hands" wonder of the whole woolly West!

TODAY HERE I am, tottering around in a mere sports car, while people like youth-minded Jerome C. Hauke of my own Mill Valley keeps the bicycle torch aflame.

Of course it's not really my age but just the thundering motorized herd that's got me off the bike-bug.

I can see this plainly. But just the same, there is courageous Mr. Hauke still a bicycle enthusiast. And not only that but a man with nerve and brains to tell the Mill Valley city authorities a few plain truths about bicycle ordinances.

Here is a man who really knows the two-wheelers, as witness his attack on the official idiocy of trying to require fenders.

FENDERS? WHY, they're strictly for girls' bikes, if anybody's. Fenders are heavy, they rattle. What public interest can they serve? Maybe they keep some mud off the rider, but that's a strictly domestic issue, and no thanks to officialdom for putting it into Mom's mind.

Naturally it's fantastic to forbid kids with bikes to race other kids with bikes. Let's hear no more of THAT one.

As to riding on sidewalks, it was illegal to do so even in my ancient day. I never heard of anybody getting caught and punished.

My idea would be to leave sidewalk riding illegal. This would keep bikes away from pedestrians in downtown areas where the motorist isn't much of a hazard anyway. Anywhere else, let the kids enjoy a little illegality the way motorists do.

MECHANICALLY, a bike is either fit to go or it doesn't go. If the coppers want compulsory inspection of something let them give it to cars, as is the habit in a lot of other places; a good habit, too.

What happens to one of those Italian-imported nine-gear fancy bikes when everything isn't strictly hotsy-totsy mechanically I blanch to think. But as I said, either a bike is right, or it's too crippled to ride.

It used to be that a bike was almost never stolen. Nowadays people aren't so honest, I hear. So there may be something to having bikes licensed, though I hate the thought.

What I wish is that nobody had brought the whole bicycle subject up, to remind me what a coward I've become and how much fun a bike can be if you can find anywhere to ride it nowadays.

Don't tempt me too far, boys. I might find out I'm not so old as I and others thought I was.

AND IF MR. HAUKE has any luck getting his dog section into the new ordinance, I'm sold. You know—his proposal that "no dog shall chase after any bicycle or bite any person riding any bike (in) Mill Valley without first obtaining a permit therefore."

That is the kind of legislation for which the world has been waiting all these years. Put teeth into it and by jingo, I'll sell the Porsche and get a nine-gear bicycle—built for two!

HOW TO PLAY WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

For Certain Kind Of Hand You Have To Wear A Mask

The female of the species sometimes puts on powder and paint for a session at the bridge table; the male thinks he has done his duty if he just washes his face. Neither is enough. For a certain kind of hand you have to wear a mask.

Opening lead — ♡ K

When this hand was played in a team match some years ago, the first declarer naively cashed the ace of clubs at the second trick after winning the first trick with the ace of hearts.

TELLS EVERYBODY

This told everybody at the able that South had the singleton ace of clubs and was getting it out of the way.

This declarer continued with two top spades and a third spade. Seeing just what was happening, West stepped up with the ace of trumps and cashed a heart trick while the cashing was good.

East eventually took the setting trick with the king of diamonds. Down one, and everybody agreed that South had played the hand like a little gentleman.

MORE CASUAL

At the other table, the declarer was more casual about his ace of clubs. It wasn't clearly labeled a singleton.

Declarer won the first trick with the ace of hearts and cashed the ace and king of spades. If nothing startling happened, South planned to cash the ace of clubs next.

As it happened, West dropped the queen of spades on the second round of that suit. South saw just what would happen if he made the giveaway play of the ace of clubs.

Instead, South led a low spade. West saw no reason to cash tricks in a hurry, so he discarded a club.

Declarer ruffed the spade in dummy and got back to his hand innocently with the ace of clubs. Then he led another low spade.

It all looked quite innocent, so West discarded another low club. Declarer ruffed in dummy and triumphantly cashed the king of clubs to get rid of the losing heart. Then he could draw trumps and claim the rest.

Today is Wednesday, May 23, the 143rd day of the year with 222 to follow in 1962.

The moon is approaching its last quarter.

The evening stars are Mercury and Venus.

On this day in history:

In 1701, Capt. William Kidd was hanged in London after being charged with piracy and murder.

In 1945, Nazi secret police chief Heinrich Himmler committed suicide at Luneberg, Germany, three days after his capture by British troops.

A thought for the day: French philosopher Pascal said: "Men are so necessarily mad that not to be mad would amount to another form of madness."

Goodman Will Take Jazz To Moscow

By JOSEPH SMITH

MOSCOW (UPI)—Benny Goodman's mission to Moscow this month will bring American jazz to Soviet audiences for the first time with official government approval.

"Mission to Moscow" used to be one of the swing arrangements in Goodman's repertoire. Although they may not recognize this particular tune, Soviet listeners already are familiar with Goodman's music, through broadcasts, home-made tapes, and an occasional Western record.

"Half the people will go to hear Goodman as an old friend whose music they have known for years," one Soviet fan said, "and the other half will go out of curiosity and because he's American. All of them will like it."

Goodman's acceptance by the Soviet government under the official U.S.-Soviet cultural exchange program was understood to have come only after some hard bargaining by the Americans.

But the official Soviet attitude has changed vastly from the days of Stalin, who banned all jazz and most other "foreign influences."

The anti-jazz feeling did not disappear completely with Stalin. Composer Dmitri Shostakovich, who incidentally has always liked Benny Goodman's music, returned from a tour of the United States in 1959 to criticize Louis Armstrong's jazz as "vulgar."

He instructed Soviet composers of popular music to write "heroic songs about the exploits of our people."

But official frowns did not discourage the growing popularity of jazz in Russio. Most has followed American forms, although with the new friendship between Cuba and the Soviet Union, Cuban rhythms have become mingled with the jazz beats.

There are Russian jazz combos playing several times a week at Moscow's youth cafes, the "Ileta" and "Melodoznaya."

The hotel bands at the national and other top hotels in the city blare out arrangements patterned after the Goodman and Glenn Miller hits of the 1930s—with the volume turned up.

Radio and television programs mix home-grown jazz numbers with folk songs and tunes extolling the workers.

But most Western jazz flows to the Soviet Union over the transmitters of the Voice of America (VOA) and the British Broadcasting Corp. (BBC).

And the music doesn't stop when the VOA or BBC broadcasts sign off. Many fans record the programs on tapes for their own use, to play at parties, or to sell. The Soviet press has reported several crackdowns on this bootleg tape operation.

Benny Goodman always has been a favorite, and his popularity is expected to increase vastly when he begins his tour May 30. Goodman will take his clarinet and orchestra to all the usual tour stops, plus some places few Americans ever have visited.

Besides the usual stops at Moscow, Leningrad, and Kiev, he will go to Tbilisi in the Georgian Republic and Tashkent in Central Asia.

Tiburon Apartment Sewage Discussed

Richardson Bay Sanitary District directors Monday night discussed easements and provisions for sewer service to the Tiburon Boulevard Apartments and the Tiburon Apartment Co. but put the matter over to June 5.

The apartments, approximately 300, are to be located on the north side of Tiburon Boulevard between Bel Aire and the Reedlands.

The board was advised that boundaries of the proposed Hawthorne Terrace annexation have been determined and that petitions for annexation are to be distributed.

Party Planned For Gate Span 25th Birthday

This was the word today from the Redwood Empire Assn., sponsor of the silver anniversary luncheon at San Francisco's Hotel St. Francis.

Several tables in the hotel's Colonial Ballroom have been reserved by Marin County organizations or individuals, said Dan E. London, chairman for the affair.

Chairman Walter R. Castro, of the Marin County Board of Supervisors, is to be an honor guest at the speakers' table, along with Leland S. Murphy, of Inverness, and Matthew A. Graham of San Anselmo, directors of the Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District, of which Graham is chairman.

Keynote speaker will be Dr. Robert Gordon Sproul, president emeritus of University of California, who will review the bridge's first quarter century.

On Sunday at 2 p.m., the Redwood Empire Assn. will present a bronze commemorative plaque to the bridge, and a parade of more than 200 antique care will cross the span and pass in review at the bridge's south plaza.

Opened on May 27, 1937, the Golden Gate Bridge remains the world's longest single suspension span, and has been completely self-sustaining through its tolls, now reduced to 25 cents. It is scheduled to pay off its bonds by 1970.

2 Fighting It Out For County Coroner

County Coroner Frank J. Keaton, incumbent for 11 years, will meet challenge at the polls by one other contender for an office which next Jan. 1 will become salaried for the first time.

His opponent is Forrest N. Johnson, 33, who lives with his wife, Lois, and two children at 849 Montecillo Road, Terra Linda. Johnson has been a physical therapist at St. Francis Hospital in San Francisco but is now studying at University of California for a master's degree in public health.

A basis of Johnson's claim against the veteran Keaton is that the job of coroner, linked with that of public administrator, is so important that it demands full time without conflicting interests such as Keaton's undertaking business. Other undertakers have said the conflict runs deeper.

Johnson runs not only against Keaton but against his family, charging that "one family has held this office for 42 years—it's time to change."

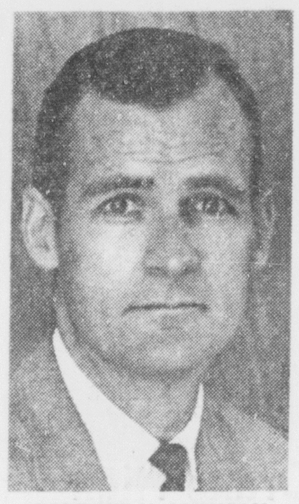

Born in St. Paul, Minn., Johnson won a bachelor of science degree from Macalester College in St. Paul. During the Korea conflict he served on a Navy tanker. He left the service with the rank of lieutenant, junior grade.

Johnson came to California 11 years ago and moved to Sausalito about four and one-half years ago, establishing the family base in Terra Linda last year. He is due to graduate from present studies in Berkeley within a few days of the decision of the voters.

His affiliations include the American Hospital Assn., American Physical Therapy Assn. and Reserve Officers Assn.

FRANK J. KEATON
To run again

FORREST N. JOHNSON
Challenges veteran

Frank J. Keaton, co-owner of Keaton's Mortuaries and a former president of the California Funeral Directors Assn. and of the Marin County Peace Officers Assn., was born in San Rafael and lives at the family home at 1011 E Street with his wife, the former Katheryn Purman of Ross, and one child, Kathry.

His father, the late J. Ray Keaton, purchased Keaton's Mortuary in 1921. The son after attending St. Raphael's School and San Rafael High School, took a degree as embalmer from the College of Mortuary Science. He has also attended the Marin County Police Officers Training School.

Keaton became coroner-public administrator 11 years ago. Pay has been on a fee system, which he defended when the board of supervisors changed it to a salary basis effective next Jan. 1. He said, however, that he would still be interested in the job and this spring announced his candidacy to succeed himself.

During World War II Keaton served in the Army, seeing action in the Normandy campaign of northern France and Germany, and was awarded three battle stars.

He was appointed U. S. government administrator of a 150-bed hospital in Magdeburg during the occupation. As a technician third (staff sergeant) with the 119th Infantry, 30th Infantry Division, he refused a battlefield commission.

His many affiliations include the Native Sons of the Golden West, B.P.O.E. Lodge 1108, United Ancient Order of Druids in Novato, Foresters of American in Sausalito, Wilkins Post of the American Legion, and Fraternal Order of Eagles.

He is serving his third term as president of the Marin County Society of Crippled Children and Adults.

During the past 17 years many Marin County and other organizations have been granted free use of his Sonoma picnic ground area, "Keaton's Shack," dedicated to the memory of his mother.

Keaton holds the national conference certificate of the Funeral Directors Board.

SAN RAFAEL NOT STICKS, BUT HORSEY

San Rafael may not be the sticks, but it's mighty horsey, or so say Harry and Marvene Krueger, owners of the Westerner in the Montecito Shopping Center on Third Street.

The Kruegers announced last week that everyone who dropped by the store Saturday on horseback would ride away with a free shirt.

By dusk Saturday, they had dispensed more than 30 shirts.

Vail Property Is Off Calendar

A second condemnation trial for a parcel of land needed for expansion of Wade Thomas School in San Anselmo was taken off the trial calendar yesterday because there is a possibility of settlement on the price.

The trial to set a price on the property of Mrs. Harriet Vail of 130 Ross Avenue had been set for hearing.

Asst. County Counsel Douglas Maloney said tentative agreement had been reached between Mrs. Vail and the school district. The proposal is to be submitted to the State Allocation Board, scheduled to meet on June 12 in Sacramento.

Trial on the first three properties was completed 10 days ago before Judge N. Charles Brusatori. He has taken the case under submission.

The three properties in the first trial are owned by Fred Lancelloti of 169 Crescent Road, Mrs. Gladys Donohue of 125 and 129 Woodland Avenue, and Mrs. Marguerite Monteverdi of 116 Kensington Road.

Two Windows Smashed At Construction Site

Two 21-by-40-inch windows were smashed and plaster smeared on unfinished walls at the St. Isabella School under construction at Terra Linda, police reported yesterday.

The damage was discovered Monday by Jack Plumbridge of Woodacre, foreman for Ray I. Johnson Construction Co. of Kentfield.

$60 Suitcase Stolen

A large suitcase valued at $60, part of a matching sea green set, was stolen from a parked car at 1133 Fourth Street in San Rafael between 1 and 2 p.m. Saturday, Jean Gould of 711 Meadowsweet Drive, Corte Madera, reported to San Rafael police.

Dixie School Board To Accept Additions

The Dixie School District board is to accept additions to one school and discuss plans for another at its meeting tonight.

Acceptance of the Mary E. Silveira School addition and site development is scheduled for the meeting, which will be at 8 p.m. in the Silveira School multi-purpose room.

Condition of the district's libraries is to be reported by Mrs. Kathryn McGregor, district librarian.

Whether to hold a mentally retarded "point one" class in the Dixie District next term will also be discussed, said Supt. Dennis B. Willis.

Coed Picked For Honor Society

LITTLE BOY ALL TALK—
BIG MAN ALL ACTION

At the risk of infecting these "journalistic" efforts with the taint of undisguised commercialism, it becomes most compelling to utilize the broader space and format provided here to set a few records straight.

Ambiguous rules or codes of ethics, much like the rules of warfare meticulously outlined by the Geneva Convention, and subsequently ignored by all participants in battle, presumably restricts dealers of the same make from advertising in the principal newspaper of his competitors area. By some twisted logic, interpretation of these rules seems to permit our desperate "competitors" to the immediate north and south to fill space in the Independent-Journal with their tired platitudes at their pleasure while restricting Ames Ford from advertising specific and substantial bargains in the newspapers serving their areas.

Ordinarily, wiser heads would dictate the most effective tactic would be to ignore this annoying petty bombardment, and rely on the perceptive car-buying public to conclude properly that Ames Ford could not have reached its present dominant position in Marin County without providing, consistently, lower prices, better terms, broader selection of models, and far more qualified service specialized mechanics, than any other dealer.

Ordinarily, yes. But when platitudes become barbs and arrows aimed directly at us, fired from the vantage point of our own front yard, it is time to rise in righteous indignation.

We will not do battle. One does not strike an incorrigible child in these enlightened times. Rather, we will continue out policy of accepting ANY transaction where there is the slightest semblence of profit left, and providing the best service available anywhere in the county, service which has won us the Distinguished Achievement Award from our factory.

The little boys will always talk and shout. The big man will deliver the goods with action.

2 Fighting It Out For County Coroner

County Coroner Frank J. Keaton, incumbent for 11 years, will meet challenge at the polls by one other contender for an office which next Jan. 1 will become salaried for the first time.

His opponent is Forrest N. Johnson, 33, who lives with his wife, Lois, and two children at 849 Montecillo Road, Terra Linda. Johnson has been a physical therapist at St. Francis Hospital in San Francisco but is now studying at University of California for a master's degree in public health.

A basis of Johnson's claim against the veteran Keaton is that the job of coroner, linked with that of public administrator, is so important that it demands full time without conflicting interests such as Keaton's undertaking business. Other undertakers have said the conflict runs deeper.

Johnson runs not only against Keaton but against his family, charging that "one family has held this office for 42 years—it's time to change."

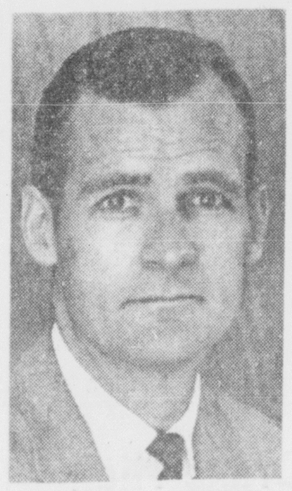

Born in St. Paul, Minn., Johnson won a bachelor of science degree from Macalester College in St. Paul. During the Korea conflict he served on a Navy tanker. He left the service with the rank of lieutenant, junior grade.

Johnson came to California 11 years ago and moved to Sausalito about four and one-half years ago, establishing the family base in Terra Linda last year. He is due to graduate from present studies in Berkeley within a few days of the decision of the voters.

His affiliations include the American Hospital Assn., American Physical Therapy Assn. and Reserve Officers Assn.

FRANK J. KEATON
To run again

FORREST N. JOHNSON
Challenges veteran

Frank J. Keaton, co-owner of Keaton's Mortuaries and a former president of the California Funeral Directors Assn. and of the Marin County Peace Officers Assn., was born in San Rafael and lives at the family home at 1011 E Street with his wife, the former Katheryn Purman of Ross, and one child, Kathry.

His father, the late J. Ray Keaton, purchased Keaton's Mortuary in 1921. The son after attending St. Raphael's School and San Rafael High School, took a degree as embalmer from the College of Mortuary Science. He has also attended the Marin County Police Officers Training School.

Keaton became coroner-public administrator 11 years ago. Pay has been on a fee system, which he defended when the board of supervisors changed it to a salary basis effective next Jan. 1. He said, however, that he would still be interested in the job and this spring announced his candidacy to succeed himself.

During World War II Keaton served in the Army, seeing action in the Normandy campaign of northern France and Germany, and was awarded three battle stars.

He was appointed U. S. government administrator of a 150-bed hospital in Magdeburg during the occupation. As a technician third (staff sergeant) with the 119th Infantry, 30th Infantry Division, he refused a battlefield commission.

His many affiliations include the Native Sons of the Golden West, B.P.O.E. Lodge 1108, United Ancient Order of Druids in Novato, Foresters of American in Sausalito, Wilkins Post of the American Legion, and Fraternal Order of Eagles.

He is serving his third term as president of the Marin County Society of Crippled Children and Adults.

During the past 17 years many Marin County and other organizations have been granted free use of his Sonoma picnic ground area, "Keaton's Shack," dedicated to the memory of his mother.

Keaton holds the national conference certificate of the Funeral Directors Board.

SAN RAFAEL NOT STICKS, BUT HORSEY

San Rafael may not be the sticks, but it's mighty horsey, or so say Harry and Marvene Krueger, owners of the Westerner in the Montecito Shopping Center on Third Street.

The Kruegers announced last week that everyone who dropped by the store Saturday on horseback would ride away with a free shirt.

By dusk Saturday, they had dispensed more than 30 shirts.

Vail Property Is Off Calendar

A second condemnation trial for a parcel of land needed for expansion of Wade Thomas School in San Anselmo was taken off the trial calendar yesterday because there is a possibility of settlement on the price.

The trial to set a price on the property of Mrs. Harriet Vail of 130 Ross Avenue had been set for hearing.

Asst. County Counsel Douglas Maloney said tentative agreement had been reached between Mrs. Vail and the school district. The proposal is to be submitted to the State Allocation Board, scheduled to meet on June 12 in Sacramento.

Trial on the first three properties was completed 10 days ago before Judge N. Charles Brusatori. He has taken the case under submission.

The three properties in the first trial are owned by Fred Lancelloti of 169 Crescent Road, Mrs. Gladys Donohue of 125 and 129 Woodland Avenue, and Mrs. Marguerite Monteverdi of 116 Kensington Road.

Two Windows Smashed At Construction Site

Two 21-by-40-inch windows were smashed and plaster smeared on unfinished walls at the St. Isabella School under construction at Terra Linda, police reported yesterday.

$60 Suitcase Stolen

A large suitcase valued at $60, part of a matching sea green set, was stolen from a parked car at 1133 Fourth Street in San Rafael between 1 and 2 p.m. Saturday, Jean Gould of 711 Meadowsweet Drive, Corte Madera, reported to San Rafael police.

Dixie School Board To Accept Additions

The Dixie School District board is to accept additions to one school and discuss plans for another at its meeting tonight.

Acceptance of the Mary E. Silveira School addition and site development is scheduled for the meeting, which will be at 8 p.m. in the Silveira School multi-purpose room.

Condition of the district's libraries is to be reported by Mrs. Kathryn McGregor, district librarian.

Whether to hold a mentally retarded "point one" class in the Dixie District next term will also be discussed, said Supt. Dennis B. Willis.
